TITLE 410 INDIANA STATE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

LSA Document #06-20(E)

DIGEST

Temporarily adds provisions to establish rules regarding admission, maintenance, and discharge of residents of the Indiana Veterans' Home. Authority: IC 4-22-2-37.1; IC 16-19-3-5. Effective February 10, 2006.

SECTION 1. The definitions in this document apply throughout this document.

SECTION 2. "Applicant" means a person applying for admission into the Indiana veterans' home.

SECTION 3. "Date of application" means the date that a completed application for admission is received in the admissions office of the Indiana veterans' home.

SECTION 4. "Home" means the Indiana veterans' home governed by IC 10-17-9 and IC 16-19-6.

SECTION 5. "Legal representative" means a person who is:

- (1) a guardian;
- (2) a health care representative;
- (3) an attorney in fact; or
- (4) a person authorized by IC 16-36-1-5 to give health care consent.

SECTION 6. "Maintenance charge" means the amount the resident is required to pay for his stay at the home, which is established pursuant to IC 10-17-9-11. The term is also known as the daily room rate. The maintenance charge will be less than or equal to the maintenance costs for the applicant or resident.

SECTION 7. "Maintenance costs" means the full cost of maintaining a resident at the home calculated pursuant to IC 10-17-9-8. The term is also known as the per capita cost.

SECTION 8. "Resident" means a member or person who has been admitted to the Indiana veterans' home and resides there.

SECTION 9. (a) "Superintendent" means the superintendent of the Indiana veterans' home who:

- (1) has the immediate charge and management of the home;
- (2) directs and controls the home's employees; and
- (3) superintends the care and management of the residents in the home.

(b) The superintendent includes a designee of the superintendent.

SECTION 10. (a) An applicant shall apply for admission to the home by submitting a completed application form prescribed by the home. The completed application shall be signed by the applicant and notarized.

(b) In addition to the application required under subsection (a), an applicant shall submit the following:

- (1) A copy of the applicant's military discharge.
- (2) Information concerning current income, including, but not limited to, the following:
  - (A) Pensions.
  - (B) Compensation or income from any source.
  - (C) Benefits from:

- (i) the Social Security Administration;
  - (ii) the railroad retirement law; or
  - (iii) a retirement annuity or insurance annuity.
- (3) A resident services agreement signed by the applicant.
- (4) Either:
  - (A) a letter by the auditor of the applicant's county of residence stating whether the applicant has owned property within the last three (3) years; or
  - (B) the applicant's property tax statement.
- (5) Information concerning assets including, but not limited to, the following:

    - (i) Jewelry.
    - (ii) Art.
    - (iii) Antiques.
    - (iv) Gold and precious metals.
    - (v) Vehicles.
- (6) Copies of all health insurance cards and values for life insurance.
- (7) Any other documentation that the home may require in order to determine financial assets.

(c) In addition to the application required under subsection (a) and additional items required under subsection (b), an applicant who is a spouse or surviving spouse of a veteran shall submit the following:

- (1) A copy of the veteran's military discharge.
- (2) A copy of a certificate of marriage to the veteran.
- (3) If the veteran spouse is deceased, a certified copy of the death certificate.

(d) The applicant is responsible for reporting any changes that occur in the applicant's income or assets during the application and admission process.

(e) The application form required by subsection (a) and additional documentation required by subsections (b) through (d) shall be submitted to the Admissions Office, Indiana Veterans' Home, 3851 N. River Road, West Lafayette, IN 47906.

(f) The burden is on the applicant to complete the application and submit the required documentation. An incomplete application may be returned to the applicant.

SECTION 11. (a) This document applies only to applications received after the effective date of this article.

(b) An applicant shall apply for the maximum of every benefit or assistance program for which the applicant may be eligible that will increase the income of the applicant or provide reimbursement to the home for the resident's care. Such benefits or assistance programs include, but are not limited to:

- (1) Social Security benefits;
- (2) veterans benefits;
- (3) retirement benefits;
- (4) private pensions;
- (5) Medicare Part A and Part B;

- (6) long term care insurance;
- (7) Medicaid; or
- (8) any combination of benefit or assistance programs.

(c) The staff shall provide an applicant with information about benefits or assistance programs and help in applying for those benefits.

(d) An applicant may be required to provide a power of attorney or a release of information to the superintendent in order to assist in investigating the applicant's financial condition and to aid in securing any benefits or assistance programs for which the applicant may be eligible.

(e) An applicant shall agree that when the applicant's available resources are insufficient to pay the entire cost of care or maintenance on a current basis, he will apply for the maximum of every benefit or assistance program for which the applicant or resident may be eligible, including, but not limited to, the benefits or assistance programs listed in subsection (b).

SECTION 12. (a) Upon receipt of an application for admission, the superintendent may conduct an assessment to determine the home's ability to meet the applicant's medical, cognitive, and psychosocial needs and an investigation to determine the financial status of the applicant.

(b) The purpose of the initial financial status review is to determine the applicant's maintenance charge.

(c) The admissions committee shall require the following:

- (1) Documentation of a chest x-ray in compliance with 410 IAC 16.2-3.1-18(c).
- (2) Documentation of compliance with the health assessment and tuberculosis testing required by 410 IAC 16.2-3.1-18.

(d) An admissions committee shall:

- (1) review each application and all pertinent documentation to ensure inclusion of all information and documents necessary to determine eligibility for admission; and
- (2) determine whether the applicant has satisfied the applicable requirements of SECTIONS 10 and 11 of this document.

(e) If the application is complete and the applicable requirements of SECTIONS 10 and 11 of this document have been satisfied, the admissions committee shall arrange for a preadmission assessment. The preadmission assessment may be conducted at the home, a nursing home, other facility, or the applicant's residence.

(f) In addition to the preadmission screening, the applicant shall participate in the state's prescreening assessment and resident review (PASRR), if the admission is to the comprehensive care portion of the home.

(g) After receiving the results of the preadmission screening, the admissions committee shall recommend to the superintendent that an applicant's admission be approved or denied.

(h) Applications will be reviewed in the order of receipt of completed applications.

SECTION 13. (a) The superintendent may approve an applicant's admission to the home, provided the following:

(1) The applicant:

- (A) submits a completed application;
- (B) satisfies all requirements of SECTIONS 10 and 11 of this document;
- (C) agrees to a voluntary admission; and
- (D) completes and signs a resident services agreement.

(2) The applicant satisfies:

- (A) the eligibility requirements described in IC 10-17-9-7; and
- (B) the requirements for the level of care for which the applicant applies.

(3) The admissions committee recommends admission.

(b) The superintendent may deny an admission if the applicant fails to meet the requirements of subsection (a).

(c) If an appropriate bed is not available at the time of admission, the superintendent shall place the applicant's name on a waiting list in order by date of application approval.

(d) Applicants are admitted from the waiting list in the order in which their applications are approved, subject to bed availability in the program or service area for which admission has been approved.

(e) The superintendent shall notify an applicant of the date and time that an applicant may be admitted to the home. An applicant on a waiting list longer than thirty (30) days shall submit an updated medical information form completed by his physician before receiving such notification.

(f) An applicant may be denied admission when in the interim between application approval and scheduled admission date:

- (1) the applicant's health care needs have changed to the extent that the program or service for which the applicant was originally approved can no longer meet the applicant's health care needs; or
- (2) the applicant's service needs have changed to such an extent that the home can no longer meet the applicant's health care or service needs.

(g) An applicant who declines a scheduled admission may be placed at the bottom of the appropriate service waiting list. The next person on the waiting list will be invited for admission.

(h) If the applicant has any change in financial status in the interim between application approval and scheduled admission, or additional financial information becomes available, the applicant shall submit an updated financial information form within fourteen (14) days after learning of the information or change in status.

SECTION 14. Before admission, all applicants receive information that states all of the following:

- (1) The applicant's maintenance charge and the maintenance costs.
- (2) The due date for monthly payments of the maintenance charge.
- (3) The source of funds from which payment is to be made.
- (4) The consequences of nonpayment.

SECTION 15. The maintenance cost of each resident shall be calculated annually.

SECTION 16. (a) Each resident shall promptly provide the superintendent with a statement reflecting all income and resources of the resident at the following times:

- (1) Annually.
- (2) Within fourteen (14) days of any change in income.
- (3) Within fourteen (14) days of receipt of any lump sum/back-award payment of benefits.

The home shall provide forms for reporting of income and resources.

(b) The statement required in subsection (a) shall include all of the resident's resources including those listed in SECTION 10 of this document.

(c) A resident unable to furnish the information required by subsections (a) and (b) may be required to provide the superintendent with a power of attorney or release of information to enable the superintendent to obtain financial information that is needed to satisfy the requests for information under subsections (a) and (b).

(d) The staff of the home may help residents complete and submit appropriate statements required by subsections (a) and (b) in a timely manner and resolve any underpayment or overpayment of benefits.

SECTION 17. (a) The superintendent shall review the financial status of each resident as follows:

- (1) Annually.
- (2) Upon any change of circumstances that may affect the resident's financial status or ability to pay the resident's maintenance costs.

(b) The financial status review described in subsection (a) shall include a determination of the ability of each resident to pay for the resident's maintenance costs.

(c) The resident's ability to pay the maintenance costs shall be determined from all of the resident's financial resources including those listed in SECTION 10 of this document.

(d) The home shall notify the resident of any change in the resident's maintenance charge following a financial status review.

SECTION 18. The resident services agreement is a contract that shall be signed by the applicant or resident and shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

- (1) The name and address of the applicant or resident and his legal representative, if any.
- (2) The detail of the applicant or resident's income and resources used to calculate the maintenance charges.
- (3) The amount of the maintenance charge for the applicant or resident.
- (4) A statement that the applicant or resident agrees to comply with all home policies regarding residents, all applicable state laws, and this article [document].

SECTION 19. (a) Residents admitted to the home before the effective date of this document are not required to comply with subsections (c), (e) through (g), and (j)(3).

(b) Each resident is responsible for payment of the resident's maintenance costs.

(c) A resident whose available resources are insufficient to pay the entire maintenance costs on a current basis shall apply for the maximum of every benefit or assistance program for which the resident may be eligible, including, but not limited to, the benefits or assistance programs listed in SECTION 11 of this document.

(d) The home shall provide each resident with information about possible available benefits or programs of assistance and assistance in applying for those benefits.

(e) Each resident shall comply with any reporting requirements necessary to initiate or continue any benefits to which a resident is entitled.

(f) Each resident, who may be eligible for benefits including, but not limited to, the benefits listed in subsection (c), shall provide necessary information and fully cooperate with the superintendent in the application for and maintenance of such benefits.

(g) A resident may be required to provide a power of attorney or a release of information to the superintendent in order to assist in securing any benefits for which the resident may be eligible.

(h) A resident shall be billed for maintenance charges as follows:

- (1) The maintenance charge shall be billed monthly.
- (2) The maintenance charge shall be mailed to the address designated by the resident on the resident's application for admission.
- (3) A resident shall be charged for the day of admission but not for the day of discharge. For purposes of this subdivision, one (1) day is the twenty-four (24) hour period ending at midnight.
- (4) A billing shall state the date by which payment shall be received.

Failure of the home to comply with subsection (1) through subsection (4) [subdivisions (1) through (4)] shall not relieve the resident of the obligation to pay.

(i) The amount of the billed maintenance charge may be redetermined at any time upon a change in circumstances related to the resident's ability to pay.

(j) A resident's account is considered delinquent if a resident willfully refuses or willfully fails to pay the maintenance charge bill by the due date. Residents shall be notified if payment has not been received by the due date printed on the bill. A "willful refusal or willful failure to pay" occurs when:

- (1) the decision of whether to pay is completely within the control of the resident;

- (2) a resident has the ability or resources to pay the maintenance charge and fails to pay; or
- (3) a resident has not paid his maintenance costs and fails to apply for the maximum of every benefit or assistance program available, as required by SECTION 11(b) of this document.

(k) The home shall not require a third party guarantee for payment to the home as a condition of admission or continued stay at the home.

SECTION 20. A resident shall be voluntarily discharged from the home when:

- (1) the resident has satisfactorily demonstrated a readiness to return to independent living; or
- (2) the resident no longer wishes to remain a resident.

SECTION 21. A resident may be discharged from the home pursuant to 410 IAC 16.2-3.1-12.

SECTION 22. A resident may appeal a transfer or discharge by following the procedures detailed in 410 IAC 16.2-3.1-12.

SECTION 23. An applicant may appeal under IC 4-21.5 the superintendent's decision of approval of admission or denial of admission pursuant to SECTION 13 of this document.
