Chapter 2. Miscellaneous

IC 24-4.4-2-101

Short title

Sec. 101. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the First Lien Mortgage Lending Act - Miscellaneous.

As added by P.L.145-2008, SEC.20.

IC 24-4.4-2-201

Duty to provide payoff amount; liability for failure to provide; prepayment penalty prohibited for adjustable rate mortgages; short sales

Sec. 201. (1) A creditor or mortgage servicer shall provide, in writing, an accurate payoff amount for a first lien mortgage transaction to the debtor not later than seven (7) business days (excluding legal public holidays, Saturdays, and Sundays) after the creditor or mortgage servicer receives the debtor's written request for the accurate payoff amount. A payoff statement provided by a creditor or mortgage servicer under this subsection must include the date the statement was prepared and the payoff amount as of that date, including an itemization of each fee, charge, or other sum included within the payoff amount. A creditor or mortgage servicer who fails to provide an accurate payoff amount is liable for:

(a) one hundred dollars ($100) if an accurate payoff amount is not provided by the creditor or mortgage servicer not later than seven (7) business days (excluding legal public holidays, Saturdays, and Sundays) after the creditor or mortgage servicer receives the debtor's first written request; and

(b) the greater of:

(i) one hundred dollars ($100); or

(ii) the loan finance charge that accrues on the first lien mortgage transaction from the date the creditor or mortgage servicer receives the first written request until the date on which the accurate payoff amount is provided;

if an accurate payoff amount is not provided by the creditor or mortgage servicer not later than seven (7) business days (excluding legal public holidays, Saturdays, and Sundays) after the creditor or mortgage servicer receives the debtor's second written request, and the creditor or mortgage servicer fails to comply with subdivision (a).

(2) This subsection applies to a first lien mortgage transaction, or the refinancing or consolidation of a first lien mortgage transaction, that:

(a) is closed after June 30, 2009; and

(b) has an interest rate that is subject to change at one (1) or more times during the term of the first lien mortgage transaction.

A creditor in a transaction to which this subsection applies may not contract for and may not charge the debtor a prepayment fee or penalty.

(3) This subsection applies to a first lien mortgage transaction with respect to which any installment or minimum payment due is delinquent for at least sixty (60) days. The creditor, servicer, or the creditor's agent shall acknowledge a written offer made in connection with a proposed short sale not later than five (5) business days (excluding legal public holidays, Saturdays, and Sundays) after the date of the offer if the offer complies with the requirements for a qualified written request set forth in 12 U.S.C. 2605(e)(1)(B). The creditor, servicer, or creditor's agent is required to acknowledge a written offer made in connection with a proposed short sale from a third party acting on behalf of the debtor only if the debtor has provided written authorization for the creditor, servicer, or creditor's agent to do so. Not later than thirty (30) business days (excluding legal public holidays, Saturdays, and Sundays) after receipt of an offer under this subsection, the creditor, servicer, or creditor's agent shall respond to the offer with an acceptance or a rejection of the offer. The thirty (30) day period described in this subsection may be extended for not more than fifteen (15) business days (excluding legal public holidays, Saturdays, and Sundays) if, before the end of the thirty (30) day period, the creditor, the servicer, or the creditor's agent notifies the debtor of the extension and the reason the extension is needed. Payment accepted by a creditor, servicer, or creditor's agent in connection with a short sale constitutes payment in full satisfaction of the first lien mortgage transaction unless the creditor, servicer, or creditor's agent obtains:

- (a) the following statement: "The debtor remains liable for any amount still owed under the first lien mortgage transaction."; or
- (b) a statement substantially similar to the statement set forth in subdivision (a);

acknowledged by the initials or signature of the debtor, on or before the date on which the short sale payment is accepted. As used in this subsection, "short sale" means a transaction in which the property that is the subject of a first lien mortgage transaction is sold for an amount that is less than the amount of the debtor's outstanding obligation under the first lien mortgage transaction. A creditor or mortgage servicer that fails to respond to an offer within the time prescribed by this subsection is liable in accordance with 12 U.S.C. 2605(f) in any action brought under that section.

A separate license under this article is required for each legal entity that engages in Indiana as a creditor in first lien mortgage transactions. However, a separate license under this article is not required for each branch of a legal entity licensed under this article.

(2) Each:

- (a) creditor licensed under this article; and
- (b) entity exempt from licensing under this article that employs a licensed mortgage loan originator;

(3) An individual engaging solely in loan processor or underwriter activities shall not represent to the public, through advertising or other means of communicating or providing information, including the use of business cards, stationery, brochures, signs, rate lists, or other promotional items, that the individual can or will perform any of the activities of a mortgage loan originator.

(6) For the purpose of participating in the NMLSR, the director or the department may:

- (a) waive or modify, in whole or in part, by rule or order, any of the requirements of this article; and

- (a) the applicant and any significant affiliate of the applicant;
- (b) each executive officer, director, or manager of the applicant, or any other individual having a similar status or performing a similar function for the applicant; and

- (c) surety bond requirements as described in section 402.3 of this chapter;
- (d) a review of licensure actions in Indiana and in other states; and
- (e) other background checks considered necessary by the director.

(5) For purposes of this section and in order to reduce the points of contact that the director has to maintain for purposes of this section, the director may use the NMLSR as a channeling agent for requesting and distributing information to and from any source as directed by the director.

(6) The department may deny an application under this section if the director of the department determines that the application was submitted for the benefit of, or on behalf of, a person who does not qualify for a license.

(7) Upon written request, the applicant is entitled to a hearing on the question of the qualifications of the applicant for a license in the manner provided in IC 4-21.5.

The individual to whom the request is made shall pay any fees or costs associated with processing and evaluating the fingerprints and the national criminal history background check. The national criminal history background check may be used by the director to determine the individual's compliance with this section. The director or the department may not release the results of the national criminal history background check to any private entity.

(2) For purposes of this section and in order to reduce the points of contact that the Federal Bureau of Investigation may have to maintain for purposes of this section, the director may use the NMLSR as a channeling agent for requesting information from and distributing information to the United States Department of Justice or any governmental agency.

NMLSR as sole entity responsible for processing licenses; reporting of information to NMLSR; confidentiality of information; agreements with governmental agencies or associations; waiver of privilege; processing fee

Sec. 402.4. (1) Subject to subsection (6), the director shall designate the NMLSR to serve as the sole entity responsible for:

- (a) processing applications and renewals for licenses under this article;
- (b) issuing unique identifiers for licensees and entities exempt from licensing under this article that employ a licensed mortgage loan originator under this article; and
- (c) performing other services that the director determines are necessary for the orderly administration of the department's licensing system under this article.

(2) Subject to the confidentiality provisions contained in IC 5-14-3, this section, and IC 28-1-2-30, the director shall regularly report significant or recurring violations of this article to the NMLSR.

(3) Subject to the confidentiality provisions contained in IC 5-14-3, this section, and IC 28-1-2-30, the director may report complaints received regarding licensees under this article to the NMLSR.

(4) The director may report publicly adjudicated licensure actions against a licensee to the NMLSR.

(5) The director shall establish a process in which licensees may challenge information reported to the NMLSR by the department.

(6) The director's authority to designate the NMLSR under subsection (1) is subject to the following:

- (a) Information stored in the NMLSR is subject to the confidentiality provisions of IC 5-14-3 and IC 28-1-2-30. A person may not:
 - (i) obtain information from the NMLSR, unless the person is authorized to do so by statute;
 - (ii) initiate any civil action based on information obtained from the NMLSR if the information is not otherwise available to the person under any other state law; or
 - (iii) initiate any civil action based on information obtained from the NMLSR if the person could not have initiated the action based on information otherwise available to the person under any other state law.
- (b) Documents, materials, and other forms of information in the control or possession of the NMLSR that are confidential under IC 28-1-2-30 and that are:
 - (i) furnished by the director, the director's designee, or a licensee; or

(ii) otherwise obtained by the NMLSR;

are confidential and privileged by law and are not subject to inspection under IC 5-14-3, subject to subpoena, subject to discovery, or admissible in evidence in any civil action. However, the director may use the documents, materials, or other information available to the director in furtherance of any action brought in connection with the director's duties under this article.

(c) Disclosure of documents, materials, and information:

(i) to the director; or

(ii) by the director;

under this subsection does not result in a waiver of any applicable privilege or claim of confidentiality with respect to the documents, materials, or information.

(d) Information provided to the NMLSR is subject to IC 4-1-11.

(e) This subsection does not limit or impair a person's right to:

(i) obtain information;

(ii) use information as evidence in a civil action or proceeding; or

(iii) use information to initiate a civil action or proceeding;

if the information may be obtained from the director or the director's designee under any law.

(i) disclosure under any federal or state law governing the disclosure to the public of information held by an officer or an agency of the federal government or the respective state; or

(ii) subpoena, discovery, or admission into evidence in any private civil action or administrative process, unless with respect to any privilege held by the NMLSR with respect to the information or material, the person to whom the information or material pertains waives, in whole or in part, in the discretion of the person, that privilege.

(i) Any provision of IC 5-14-3 that concerns the disclosure of:

(i) confidential supervisory information; or

(ii) any information or material described in subdivision (f); and that is inconsistent with subdivision (f) is superseded by this section.

(j) This section does not apply with respect to information or material that concerns the employment history of, and publicly adjudicated disciplinary and enforcement actions against, a person described in section 402(2) of this chapter and that is included in the NMLSR for access by the public.

(k) The director may require a licensee required to submit information to the NMLSR to pay a processing fee considered reasonable by the director. In determining whether an NMLSR processing fee is reasonable, the director shall:

(i) require review of; and

(ii) make available;

the audited financial statements of the NMLSR.

IC 24-4.4-2-403

License renewal; revocation or suspension of license not renewed; reinstatement or appeal

Sec. 403. (1) A license issued under this article must be renewed through the NMLSR not later than December 31 of each calendar year. The minimum standards for license renewal for a creditor include the following:

(a) The creditor has continued to meet the surety bond requirement under section 402.3 of this chapter.

(b) The creditor has filed the creditor's annual call report in a manner that satisfies section 405(4) of this chapter.

(c) The creditor has paid all required fees for renewal of the license.

(d) The creditor and individuals described in section 402(2) of this chapter continue to meet all the standards for licensing contained in section 402 of this chapter.

(2) A license issued by the department authorizing a person to engage in first lien mortgage transactions as a creditor under this article may be revoked or suspended by the department if the person fails to:

(a) file any renewal form required by the department; or

(b) pay any license renewal fee described under section 402 of this chapter;

not later than sixty (60) days after the due date.

(3) A person whose license is revoked or suspended under this section may do either of the following:

(a) Pay all delinquent fees and apply for reinstatement of the license.

(b) Appeal the revocation or suspension to the department for an administrative review under IC 4-21.5-3. Pending the decision resulting from the hearing under IC 4-21.5-3 concerning the license revocation or suspension, the license remains in force.

As added by P.L.145-2008, SEC.20. Amended by P.L.35-2010, SEC.17.

IC 24-4.4-2-404

Suspension or revocation of license; order to show cause; immediate suspension pending investigation; order; relinquishment of license; obligations under existing contracts not affected; reinstatement

Sec. 404. (1) The department may issue to a person licensed to engage in first lien mortgage transactions as a creditor an order to show cause why the person's license should not be revoked or suspended for a period determined by the department. The order must state the place and time for a meeting with the department that is not less than ten (10) days from the date of the order. After the meeting, the department shall revoke or suspend the license if the department finds that:

- (a) the licensee has repeatedly and willfully violated:
 - (i) this article or any rule, order, or guidance document lawfully adopted or issued under this article; or
 - (ii) any other state or federal law, regulation, or rule applicable to first lien mortgage transactions;
- (b) the licensee does not meet the licensing qualifications contained in section 402 of this chapter; or
- (c) facts or conditions exist which would clearly have justified the department in refusing to grant a license had the facts or conditions been known to exist at the time the application for the license was made.

(2) Except as provided in section 403 of this chapter, a revocation or suspension of a license is not authorized under this article unless before instituting proceedings to suspend or revoke the license, the department gives notice to the licensee of the conduct or facts that warrant the intended action, and the licensee is given an opportunity to show compliance with all lawful requirements for retention of the license.

(3) If the department finds that probable cause for revocation of a license exists and that enforcement of this article requires immediate suspension of the license pending investigation, the department may, after a hearing with the licensee upon five (5) days written notice to the licensee, enter an order suspending the license for not more than thirty (30) days.

(4) Whenever the department revokes or suspends a license, the department shall enter an order to that effect and notify the licensee of the revocation or suspension. Not later than five (5) days after the entry of the order the department shall deliver to the licensee a copy of the order and the findings supporting the order.

(5) Any person holding a license to engage in first lien mortgage transactions as a creditor may relinquish the license by notifying the department in writing of the relinquishment. However, a relinquishment under this paragraph does not affect the person's liability for acts previously committed and coming within the scope of this article.

(6) If the director determines it to be in the public interest, the director may pursue revocation of a license of a licensee that has relinquished the license under subsection (5).

(7) A revocation, suspension, or relinquishment of a license does not impair or affect the obligation of any preexisting lawful contract between:

- (a) the person whose license has been revoked, suspended, or relinquished; and
- (b) any debtor.

(8) The department may reinstate a license or terminate a suspension of a license to a person whose license has been revoked or suspended if the director determines that, at the time the determination is made, there is no fact or condition that exists that clearly would justify the department in refusing to reinstate a license.

(9) If the director:

- (a) has just cause to believe an emergency exists from which it is necessary to protect the interests of the public; or
- (b) determines that a license was obtained for the benefit of, or on behalf of, a person who does not qualify for a license;

the director may proceed with the revocation of the license under IC 4-21.5-3-6.

As added by P.L.145-2008, SEC.20. Amended by P.L.35-2010, SEC.18.

IC 24-4.4-2-404.1

- (b) has committed fraudulent or unconscionable conduct; or
- (c) has been convicted of or has pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to a felony under the laws of Indiana or any other jurisdiction;

the director, subject to subsection (2), may issue and serve upon the officer, director, or employee a notice of the director's intent to issue an order removing the person from the person's office or employment, an order prohibiting any participation by the person in the conduct of the affairs of any creditor, or an order both removing the person and prohibiting the person's participation.

(2) A violation, practice, or breach specified in subsection (1) is subject to the authority of the director under subsection (1) if the director finds any of the following:

(a) The interests of the creditor's customers could be seriously prejudiced by reason of the violation or practice.

(b) The violation, practice, or breach involves personal dishonesty on the part of the officer, director, or employee involved.

(c) The violation, practice, or breach demonstrates a willful or continuing disregard by the officer, director, or employee for state and federal laws and regulations, and for the consumer protections contained in this article.

(3) A person who:

(a) has been convicted of; or

(b) has pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to;

a felony under the laws of Indiana or any other jurisdiction may not serve as an officer, a director, or an employee of a creditor, or serve in any similar capacity, unless the person obtains the written consent of the director.

(4) A creditor that willfully permits a person to serve the creditor in violation of subsection (3) is subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500) for each day the violation continues.

(a) be in writing;

(b) contain a statement of the facts constituting the alleged practice, violation, or breach;

(c) state the facts alleged in support of the violation, practice, or breach;

(d) state the director's intention to enter an order under section 404.4(1) of this chapter;

(e) be delivered to the board of directors of the creditor;

(f) be delivered to the officer, director, or employee concerned;

(h) if the director suspends or prohibits an officer, a director, or an employee of the creditor from participating in the affairs of the creditor, as described in subsection (5), include a statement of the suspension or prohibition.

(2) If a hearing is requested not later than ten (10) days after service of the written notice, the department shall hold a hearing concerning the alleged practice, violation, or breach. The hearing shall be held not later than forty-five (45) days after receipt of the request. The department, based on the evidence presented at the hearing, shall enter a final order under section 404.4 of this chapter.

(3) If no hearing is requested within the time specified in subsection (2), the director may proceed to issue a final order under section 404.4 of this chapter on the basis of the facts set forth in the written notice.

(4) An officer, director, or employee who is removed from a position under a removal order that has become final may not participate in the conduct of the affairs of any licensee under this article without the approval of the director.

(5) The director may, for the protection of the creditor or the interests of its customers, suspend from office or prohibit from participation in the affairs of the creditor an officer, a director, or an employee of a creditor who is the subject of a written notice served by the director under section 404.1(1) of this chapter. A suspension or prohibition under this subsection becomes effective upon service of the notice under section 404.1(1) of this chapter. Unless stayed by a court in a proceeding authorized by subsection (6), the suspension or prohibition remains in effect pending completion of the proceedings related to the notice served under section 404.1(1) of this chapter and until the effective date of an order entered by the department under subsection (2) or the director under subsection (3). Copies of the notice shall also be served upon the creditor or affiliate of which the person is an officer, a director, or an employee.

(6) Not more than fifteen (15) days after an officer, a director, or an employee has been suspended from office or prohibited from participation in the conduct of the affairs of the creditor or affiliate under subsection (5), the officer, director, or employee may apply to a court having jurisdiction for a stay of the suspension or prohibition pending completion of the proceedings related to the written notice served under section 404.1(1) of this chapter, and the court may stay the suspension or prohibition.

(7) The department shall maintain an official record of a proceeding under this chapter.

Sec. 406. (1) As used in this section, "control" means possession of the power directly or indirectly to:

- (a) direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of a creditor, whether through the beneficial ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise; or
- (b) vote at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the voting securities of a creditor, whether the voting rights are derived through the beneficial ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise.

(2) An organization or an individual acting directly, indirectly, or through or in concert with one (1) or more other organizations or individuals may not acquire control of any creditor unless the department has received and approved an application for change in control. The department has not more than one hundred twenty (120) days after receipt of an application to issue a notice approving the proposed change in control. The application must contain the name and address of the organization, individual, or individuals who propose to acquire control and any other information required by the director.

(3) The period for approval under subsection (2) may be extended:

- (a) in the discretion of the director for an additional thirty (30) days; and
- (b) not more than two (2) additional times for not more than forty-five (45) days each time if:

 - (iii) the director has been unable to complete the investigation of the organization, individual, or individuals who propose to acquire control because of any delay caused by or the inadequate cooperation of the organization, individual, or individuals.

(4) The department shall issue a notice approving the application only after it is satisfied that both of the following apply:

- (a) The organization, individual, or individuals who propose to acquire control are qualified by competence, experience, character, and financial responsibility to control and operate the creditor in a legal and proper manner.

(b) The interests of the owners and creditors of the creditor and the interests of the public generally will not be jeopardized by the proposed change in control.

(5) The director may determine, in the director's discretion, that subsection (2) does not apply to a transaction if the director determines that the direct or beneficial ownership of the creditor will not change as a result of the transaction.

(6) The president or other chief executive officer of a creditor shall report to the director any transfer or sale of securities of the creditor that results in direct or indirect ownership by a holder or an affiliated group of holders of at least ten percent (10%) of the outstanding securities of the creditor. The report required by this section must be made not later than ten (10) days after the transfer of the securities on the books of the creditor.

(7) Depending on the circumstances of the transaction, the director may reserve the right to require the organization, individual, or individuals who propose to acquire control of a creditor licensed under this article to apply for a new license under section 401 of this chapter, instead of acquiring control of the licensee under this section.
