Bank holding company

Sec. 6. (a) As used in this chapter, "bank holding company" means any company that has or acquires control over:

- (1) any bank; or

- (2) any company that has or acquires control over any bank.
- (b) For the purposes of this chapter:
- (1) a company is not a bank holding company by virtue of its ownership or control of shares in a fiduciary capacity, unless the shares are held for the benefit of the shareholders of the bank;
 - (2) a company is not a bank holding company by virtue of its ownership or control of shares that are acquired by the company in connection with its underwriting of securities and that are held only for such a period of time as will permit the sale of the shares on a reasonable basis;
 - (3) a company formed for the sole purpose of participating in a proxy solicitation is not a bank holding company by virtue of its control of voting rights of shares acquired in the course of the solicitation; and
 - (4) a company is not a bank holding company by virtue of its ownership or control of shares acquired in securing or collecting a debt previously contracted in good faith, until two (2) years after the date of acquisition.

The department may extend, from time to time but for not more than one (1) year at a time, the two (2) year period referred to in subdivision (4), but the extension may not, in the aggregate, exceed three (3) years.

(c) For the purposes of this chapter, any successor to a bank holding company is a bank holding company from the date as of which the predecessor company became a bank holding company.
As added by P.L.265-1985, SEC.3.

Branch de novo or branch by acquisition; establishment; statutory requirements

Sec. 19. (a) Subject to subsections (b) and (c), a state bank is entitled to establish one (1) or more branches de novo and one (1) or more branches by acquisition in any location or locations within Indiana.

(b) A state bank is entitled to establish a branch de novo under this section with the written approval of the department. The location of any branch established under this section may be changed at any time to a location within Indiana when the change of location is authorized by the board of directors of the state bank and approved by the department. A state bank desiring to establish one (1) or more branches de novo under this section must file a written application in the form prescribed by the director. The department may approve or disapprove the application. Before the department approves the application, the state bank must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the department that the applicant state bank will have adequate capital, sound management, and adequate future earnings prospects after the establishment of the branch.

(c) The investigation of the department relative to any application as required by this subsection shall be conducted without a public hearing.

(d) A branch by acquisition may be established under this section only if done in compliance with applicable provisions of IC 28-1-7, IC 28-1-8, or IC 28-3-2.

The term includes a public school (as defined in IC 20-18-2-15) or a nonpublic school (as defined in IC 20-18-2-12).

(b) A state bank is entitled to establish an intermittent facility on the premises of a school in Indiana for the purpose of offering limited account services as an educational tool for students.

(c) The services that may be offered at an intermittent facility established under this section include:

- (1) the opening of accounts;
- (2) the acceptance of deposits; and

(3) other services determined by the department.

(d) To establish an intermittent facility under this section, a state bank is not required to submit an application to the department. However, before establishing an intermittent facility under this section, a state bank must:

(1) obtain the written permission of:

(A) the governing body of the school corporation, for a public school; or

(B) the equivalent authority for a nonpublic school; for the establishment and operation of the facility on the premises of the school; and

(2) notify the department in writing of the intention of the state bank to establish the intermittent facility.

(e) A written notice provided to the department under subsection (d)(2) must:

(1) be in the form; and

(2) contain the information;

prescribed by the department.

(f) An intermittent facility operated by a state bank under this section:

(1) may be operated only during the school year; and

(2) must meet all other requirements of state law applying to state banks.
