Chapter 2. Probate Commissioners

IC 29-2-2-1

Appointment; salary

Sec. 1. (a) In all counties of this state containing a voting population of over seven thousand (7,000), as shown by the vote cast for secretary of state at the last preceding election, the judge of the circuit court of each of said counties, when he shall find:

- (1) that the probate business of his court requires it;
- (2) that the interests of heirs under the age of eighteen (18) years and other beneficiaries of estates, guardianships, receiverships, and other trusts pending in said court will be protected and subserved thereby; and
- (3) that the same is demanded for the proper protection of such interests; shall cause such finding to be entered of record, and thereupon shall appoint some competent person as probate commissioner of such court.

(b) In such finding and order of appointment, on proof first heard in open court, the judge shall fix and specify the annual salary of such commissioner and the time of payment thereof and shall thereupon cause to be certified to the auditor of such county a copy of such finding and order, which shall be sufficient authority for said auditor to draw his warrant for the payment thereof at the times and in the amounts in said record set forth.

(Formerly: Acts 1891, c.137, s.1; Acts 1897, c.164, s.1; Acts 1911, c.269, s.1; Acts 1973, P.L.287, SEC.12.) As amended by P.L.285-1987, SEC.1.

IC 29-2-2-2

Oath of office; fees and compensation

Sec. 2. Said commissioner shall take and subscribe an oath for the faithful discharge of his duties, and shall hold his office for the term of four (4) years, subject to the provisions of this chapter, and for his services as such commissioner shall receive or be allowed no fees, emoluments or compensation whatever other than the salary fixed by said court and required to be paid out of the treasury of said county as aforesaid, and which salary shall not be increased during his said term of office.

(Formerly: Acts 1891, c.137, s.2.) As amended by Acts 1982, P.L.171, SEC.69.

Oaths; acknowledgments; removal from office

Sec. 3. Said commissioner shall have power to administer oaths, take acknowledgments and do all other acts legally pertaining to said office and necessary to carry into effect the rules or orders of said court, and he may, at any time, be removed by the court for failure to properly discharge the duties of his trust.

(Formerly: Acts 1891, c.137, s.3.)

IC 29-2-2-4

Duties defined; records

Sec. 4. At the time of the appointment of said commissioner, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, the court shall define the duties of such commissioner and cause a record thereof to be made upon the order-book of said court.

(Formerly: Acts 1891, c.137, s.4.)

IC 29-2-2-5

Rules for protection of trusts; speedy transaction of probate business

Sec. 5. Such court shall have power to make and enforce all necessary rules for the protection of the several trusts pending therein, and the requiring of delinquent guardians, administrators or other trustees to make reports, give new or additional bonds, or discharge any other duty required of them by law, or the rules of said court, and may vest such commissioner with all necessary power in the premises looking to the protection of such trusts and enforcement of the law and rules of said court in reference thereto, and the proper and speedy transaction of the probate business of such court, as the court, in its discretion, may deem advisable and necessary.

(Formerly: Acts 1891, c.137, s.5.)

Dispensing with services; salary

Sec. 6. At any time after the appointment of such commissioner, when such court shall deem that his services may be dispensed with, either for a certain or indefinite length of time, without detriment to the business of said court, or the interests of the trusts therein pending, the court shall enter of record its finding to that effect and cause the same to be certified to the auditor of such county, and thereupon, during the time so specified in such finding, the salary of such commissioner shall cease and his services during said time be dispensed with, the said commissioner to again assume his duties and receive his salary therefor only when the court shall so order.

(Formerly: Acts 1891, c.137, s.6.)
