Chapter 7. Supreme Court Records

IC 33-24-7-1

Orders concerning transcription of records

Sec. 1. When the supreme court or a majority of the justices of the supreme court consider it necessary to have all or part of the records of the court transcribed to protect those records from mutilation or decay arising from any cause, the court or justices shall order the clerk of the supreme court to transcribe the records in suitable books to be procured by the clerk for that purpose. The court shall make a reasonable allowance for the transcription to the clerk in an amount that the court considers just and proper. The allowance, when certified by a justice of the court, shall be audited by the auditor of state and paid as similar allowances in other cases.

As added by P.L.98-2004, SEC.3.

IC 33-24-7-2

Transcription of records; force and effect of transcribed records

Sec. 2. (a) When the supreme court makes an order under section 1 of this chapter, the clerk of the supreme court shall procure the books ordered by the court and transcribe in them the records or parts of records as ordered by the court.

(b) Records or parts of records transcribed under this chapter have the force and effect of the original records. Transcripts of records or parts of records transcribed under this chapter, certified by the clerk, under the seal of the court, have the same force and effect as transcripts of the original records.

As added by P.L.98-2004, SEC.3.

Index of supreme court records

Sec. 3. (a) The clerk of the supreme court shall prepare for public use, under the direction of the supreme court, a systematic index to the court's records and papers on file in the clerk's office. The index must include the following:

- (1) The title and number of every cause appealed to the supreme court.
- (2) The county and court from which appealed.
- (3) The date of filing the appeal in the clerk's office.
- (4) The date of every decision and how decided.
- (5) The number of the box or drawer in which the papers in every case can readily be found.

The clerk shall also properly clean, arrange, and securely tie the papers in each cause and place them in boxes and drawers when they are provided by the proper authorities for that purpose.

(b) The clerk of the supreme court shall also index other papers and records on file in the clerk's office as may be directed by the supreme court.
