

Emily Duncan
Public Relations Director
Indiana Lieutenant Governor Eric Holcomb

Emily Duncan serves as the Public Relations Director for the Office of Indiana Lieutenant Governor. In her role, she oversees the communications efforts of the six state agencies that make up the family of business including the Indiana State Department of Agriculture, the Indiana Housing and Community Development Authority, the Indiana Office of Defense Development, the Office of Community and Rural Affairs, the Office of Tourism Development and the Office of Small Business and Entrepreneurship.

Emily is responsible for the development, execution and analytics of marketing and communications strategies for the individual agencies as well as the larger scale collaborative opportunities across the state with non-profit, for-profit and other governmental entities. Prior to joining the Office of the Lt. Governor, Emily served in a variety of roles at the Indiana Housing and Community Development Authority including Community Development Representative, Public Information Officer and the Marketing and Communications Director before joining the Lt. Governor's office in November 2014.

Emily holds a B.A. from DePauw University in Communications and Sociology.