

JOIN US FOR GID13

Librarians & information professionals provide the crucial link between information and the communities we serve as well as a vital role in acquisition, organization, dissemination, and preservation of information, particularly government information.

What questions would you have for a government official?

GOVERNMENT

the system of rule by which a nation or state is governed.

GOVERNMENT INFORMATION DAY

TUESDAY, APRIL 9, 2013

INDIANA STATE LIBRARY

DOWNTOWN INDIANAPOLIS

Registration required by April 5, 2013

INFORMATION

knowledge gained through communication, research, etc.

What does the government documents community do with federal and state records they receive?

GUEST OF HONOR:

Mary Alice Baish,
Superintendent of Documents,
Government
Printing Office

DAY

the average length the earth makes one rotation on its axis.

2013

the 2013th year in the Anno Domini (AD) designation.

WHY ATTEND GID13?

Your participation in Government Information Day is a great way to share your online services and promote public access to government information via Indiana's libraries and local data centers. This is a unique opportunity to share ideas and network with professionals who serve Hoosiers in hundreds of communities throughout the state.

SPEAKERS & HONORED GUESTS

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Tony Fargo, IJB Columnist, Associate Professor of Journalism and Director of the Center for International Media Law and Policy Studies, Indiana University.

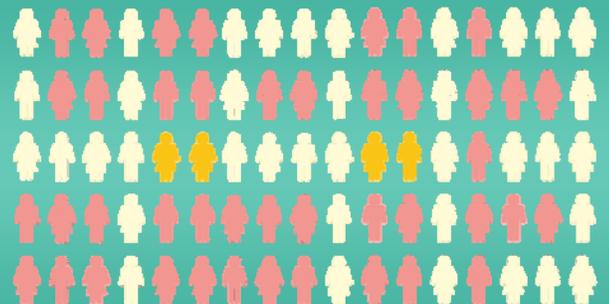

SPECIAL GUEST: Secretary of State Connie Lawson

FEATURED SPEAKER: Stephen Laue, Information Services Specialist, Chicago Region, US Census Bureau

FEATURED SPEAKER: Paul Reyes, Survey Statistician, Governments Division, U.S. Census Bureau

Government Information Day is a FREE, day-long conference. Registration is required. Lunch will be available at the State Library for $10 or on your own. Certified public librarians in attendance will be eligible to receive up to six (6) Library Education Units.

REGISTER TODAY AT www.IN.gov/library/GID.htm

Contact Kim Brown-Harden at 317-232-3732 or kbrown-harden@library.in.gov for more info