

BEST BOOKS of Indiana

2011 FINALIST
FOR CHILDREN/YA

Summer Sanctuary
Laurie Gray

A small act of kindness to one, can mean the world to another. Gray tells a story of two very different teens trying to find where they fit as they both try to make it through the summer. The primary characters within Summer Sanctuary learn what it means to trust in others while still attempting to make their own way. A safe place to sleep and a friend to help pass the time make moving through this bumper summer an enjoyable adventure.