

Chapter 7

Resource Sharing

Evergreen Indiana is a growing consortium of 99 public, school and institutional libraries located throughout Indiana that use the Evergreen ILS. Patrons of member libraries can use their Evergreen Indiana library card to view the catalogs and borrow materials from the other member libraries. The Evergreen Indiana catalog, largest catalog in the state, may be viewed at: evergreen.lib.in.us/

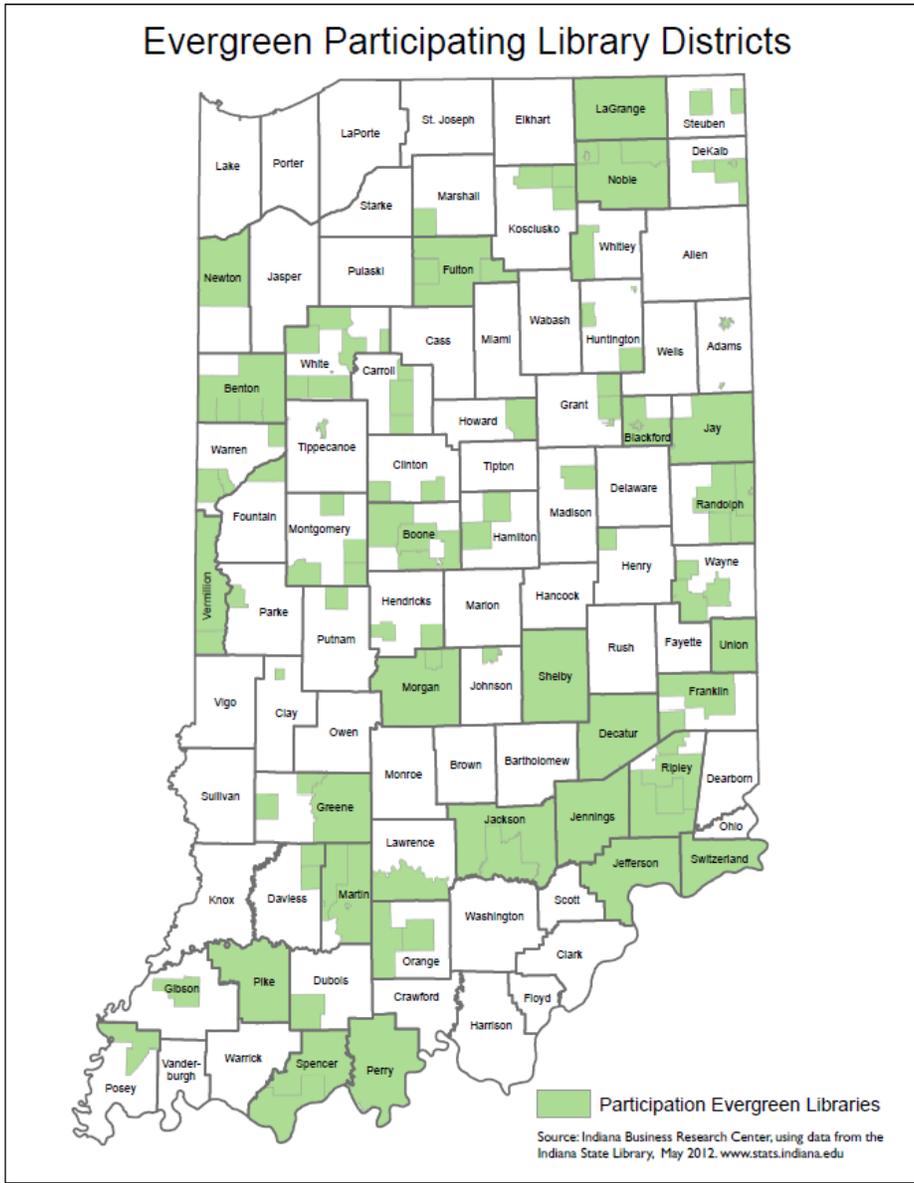

The Evergreen Indiana project is funded by the Indiana State Library through Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA) grants and state funds. The services provided by the State Library include purchasing and maintaining the central servers, personnel costs in operating the system, training, software development, data conversion, and other related expenses.

In 2008, the Indiana State Library enlisted the services and expertise of Equinox Software, Inc. to develop a comprehensive migration strategy for Indiana libraries. With a migration strategy in place, the 20 pilot libraries elected the first Evergreen Indiana Executive Committee and commenced the development of the consortium's policies and procedures. Evergreen Indiana's policies, as adopted by the Executive Committee, may be viewed on the website: www.in.gov/library/evergreen.htm

The Evergreen Indiana Consortium has seen a steady rise in interest from all types of libraries around the state. The Consortium is currently accepting applications from libraries seeking to migrate to Evergreen in 2012-2013. Requests for membership are approved by the Executive Committee. Libraries interested in joining the consortium must have board approval and submit a completed executed Membership Agreement, Code of Ethics and Board Resolution which may be found on the website: www.in.gov/library/evergreen.htm

INfo Express is the statewide library courier service managed by the Indiana State Library. Public Library districts, school districts, academic, institutional and special libraries are eligible to participate in INfo Express

Fees are based on the number of deliveries per week. Participants determine how many days a week (weekdays only) they need pick up and delivery. In order to offer the lowest possible delivery service cost for all Indiana libraries, the State Library will continue to provide state tax monies to subsidize the cost of one delivery per week per library district. Public Library districts, school districts, academic, institutional and special libraries are eligible to participate in INfo Express. The cost of additional stops per week for 52 week delivery is $450 per year after the first day.

2013-2014*			2014-2015 Rate
	In Standards	All Others	In Standards
One Day	$87.50	$537.50	$100.00
Two Day	$625.00	$1075.00	$725.00
Three Day	$1,162.50	$1,612.50	$1,350.00
Four Day	$1,700.00	$2,150.00	$1,975.00
Five Day	$2,237.50	$2,687.50	$2,600.00

The charge for the Info Express courier goes up effective January 1, 2014, however, since INfo Express is billed for the fiscal year (July 1, 2013 -- June 30, 2014), half of this year will be billed at the old rate and half at the new rate. Starting with the 2014-2015 fiscal year, the new rates will apply.*

Participants use the INfo Express website to create labels and shipping manifests.

Indiana SHARE Program

The Indiana SHARE program allows a large variety of libraries from around the state to request interlibrary loan materials through the Indiana State Library using ILLiad software. State Library staff submits the interlibrary loan requests on behalf of the requesting libraries.

Lending libraries that accept the requests will ship the materials to requesting libraries via INfo Express or library rate postage.

IN-SHARE is one of the programs that the State Library inherited from INCOLSA. It was created back in the 1970's and has changed very little since that time. As a result, IN-SHARE is not sustainable in its current form.

The ISL Resources Sharing committee is currently reviewing the construction of IN-Share, and it is unlikely that we will be able to add any more libraries to the program until they come up with a sustainable model for the program.

To learn more about the program including how to submit requests and a brief tutorial , please visit the Indiana SHARE website:

is responsible for the return of any borrowed item directly to the public library from which the cardholder borrowed the item.
All public libraries shall participate in this program and shall permit an individual who holds a valid statewide library card to borrow items available for borrowing as established by rules adopted by the Indiana Library and Historical Board under subsection (c).
Indiana Code 4-23-7.1-5.1(b)(6)(7)

The Public Library Access Card (PLAC) is the name for the statewide library card, enacted in 1993 by \(Indiana Code 4-23-7.1-5.1\), with rules promulgated in 590 IAC 3, www.in.gov/legislative/iac/T05900/A00030.PDF. The PLAC program allows an individual to borrow materials directly from any public library in Indiana. Books and non-book materials that normally circulate are eligible for loan through the PLAC program. Circulation of eBooks and eAudios are restricted and often not available to PLAC borrowers; vendor agreements limit circulation of these items. Any individual who holds a valid Indiana public library card may obtain a PLAC card.

The fee for a PLAC in calendar year 2012-2013 is $50.00.

PLAC Working Guidelines

Obtaining a PLAC Card

1. Availability of Cards. The Indiana State Library will provide a supply of numbered Public Library Access Cards at no cost to each public library in the State. Orders for additional Public Library Access Cards (PLAC) may be placed on the PLAC Quarterly Report Form www.in.gov/library/plac.htm.

2. Appearance of Card. The Public Library Access Card (PLAC) contains the following information: name of cardholder, address of cardholder, home public library of cardholder and expiration date of card. This information will be made part of the PLAC record at the issuing library. The card is issued as an individual card to one specific person.

Definitions:

The home public library (590 IAC 3) means the public library where an individual is a resident or real property taxpayer in the taxing district of the library or library from which a nonresident has purchased a card.

The issuing library may be any public library in the state, not just the home library. The PLAC card lists the name of the home library, not the issuing library.

Guideline (a): Eligibility for PLAC. An individual who is in "good standing" and eligible to obtain a valid resident or nonresident library card from one of the 237 public libraries in the state of Indiana qualifies to obtain a PLAC. A law passed in 1996 allows an individual to obtain a PLAC at any public library in Indiana.

To receive a Public Library Access Card you must have an Indiana "resident" or a non-resident library card, (I.C. 4-23-7.1-5.1).

Guideline (b): "Good Standing" is defined at the local library level. Do not issue PLAC card to individuals with overdue fines and fees.

Guideline (c): A family PLAC cannot be issued. The card is issued only as an individual card to one specific person. The local library's guidelines regarding use of a library card by a person other than the actual cardholder should be followed if a family member wishes to borrow on a PLAC card.

Guideline (d): A public library may choose to issue its own library card to an individual holding a PLAC to properly code patron record in the circulation system for record keeping. This determination is made at the local library level. Any local card that is issued to a PLAC cardholder should be marked clearly with the PLAC expiration date. Libraries that have computerized registration files should mark the expiration date of the PLAC cardholder's record in the database. PLAC cardholders may be required to show both the PLAC and the local library card to check out materials according to the lending library's rules.

College/University Student PLAC. Resident students are not required to have a PLAC to use the local public library in the college/university community in that library district.

If a college student wants to borrow materials from a public library other than his/her home library or the library in the college/university community where he/she resides, then the student will need to purchase a PLAC.

Guideline: Local libraries should follow their policies in place for issuance of student cards to local college/university or other post secondary school students.

3. Refunds. No refunds for paid PLAC fee will be made under any circumstance.
4. Replacement Card. When a cardholder's PLAC is lost or stolen, the cardholder will be issued a replacement card at the library where the PLAC was issued; the expiration date remains the original one. The fee for the replacement card will be $1.00 (subject to annual review by the Indiana Library and Historical Board) and will be remitted to the Indiana State Library. Keep a record of voided card numbers. Names, addresses, and card numbers of individuals who are issued replacement cards must appear on the PLAC Quarterly Report Form.

Fee Collection for Card

5. Payment for PLAC. An individual may pay either by cash or by check when obtaining a PLAC; credit card payment is available at some public libraries and is acceptable for PLAC card payment. If payment is made by check, the check should be made out to the public library issuing the PLAC. Collection and deposit of fees should be recorded by the issuing library according to the prescribed method of the Indiana State Board of Accounts www.in.gov/sboa/files/lib2010_003.pdf :

PLAC CARD FUND [IC 4-23-7.1-5.1]

All money received from the sale of PLAC cards should be receipted to a PLAC Card fund.

Payments are to be made to the State Library of such receipts on a quarterly basis as required by 590 IAC 3.

6. Submitting Fees to Indiana State Library. Collected fees on the PLAC should be remitted to the Indiana State Library on a quarterly basis using the PLAC Quarterly Report Form.

Types of Materials Eligible for Loan to PLAC Patrons

1. Books.

Definitions of books: hardbound print books, paperback print books, large print format books and board books.

Books that normally circulate must be available for loan to PLAC cardholders.

2. Non-book Materials.

Definition of non-book materials: videotapes, audiocassettes, CDs, records, art prints, slides, microfiche, pamphlets, periodicals (single or bound issues), etc.

Non-book materials may be loaned to PLAC cardholders at the discretion of the individual library.

EBooks and eAudio books are often ineligible for the PLAC loans because of vendor restrictions.

Annual Determination of Eligible Materials. Each local library determines annually what types of materials are eligible for loan to PLAC cardholders. This information needs to be readily available to borrowers on their library website.

Overdue & Lost Materials

Fees. Library overdue fees are set locally and the local library collects the daily overdue fee for library materials loaned to PLAC cardholders

Guideline: In the spirit of cooperation, when feasible, libraries should alert other libraries to problem borrowers with PLAC privileges that have accrued sizable overdue fines or have lost an inordinate number of items borrowed through the program.

Replacement Cost. Reimbursement for lost library material borrowed on a PLAC is the responsibility of the borrower not the borrower's home library. The replacement cost of an item is determined by the lending library.

Materials Returned to the Wrong Library. Often library materials can be re-routed to lending library without an additional cost. In those cases where there is an additional cost, the library can collect cost from the borrower.

Guideline: PLAC users should be informed that they are expected to return materials borrowed using PLAC to the lending library.

Procedures for Issuing PLAC

1. Determine if individual holds a valid library card at a public library in Indiana.

Those in unserved areas may obtain a PLAC card if they have purchased a non-resident card. The fee for a non-resident card is a minimum of $25.00 or the library's operating fund expenditure per capita (if greater than $25.00). The non-resident fee for the Indiana public libraries is found in table 4 of the latest publication of "Statistics of Indiana Libraries" found here www.in.gov/library/plstats.htm. This fee is paid in addition to the PLAC fee.

2. Determine that the individual is in "good standing." Good Standing" is defined as an individual who does not have outstanding overdue fines and fees. (This may be determined locally and require a phone call to local library for verification of patron standing).
3. Registration can take place at any of the Indiana public libraries. When registering in the computerized system, the PLAC borrower is coded to their home library not necessarily the library that sold the card.
4. Collect the PLAC fee
 - a) The PLAC borrower pays by cash, check, or credit card where available. Personal checks are payable to the issuing public library.
 - b) In some libraries, the PLAC fee may be paid in part by the home library. Accounting procedures must receipt both payments. The individual may pay by cash, check or credit card where available. Personal checks are made out to the issuing public library.

Or

5. When total fee is properly receipted issue the PLAC card to borrower.
6. Type or write in ink on the face of the PLAC
 - Name;
 - Address;
 - Expiration date (one year from date of issue of the PLAC);
 - Home library.
 - Procedure when an individual brings a PLAC to your library:

The issuing library validates that the individual is in good standing at the home library; also verifies the identity on card matches the individual. Libraries differ in their procedures with PLAC borrowers. Some issue local card to register PLAC borrower in the library's computerized system. The PLAC expiration date matches the expiration date on the local card issued.

Library policy regarding use of a library card by a person other than the actual cardholder is in force for PLAC borrower.

Statistics & Recordkeeping

Each library will be required by the State Library to keep statistics recording the home library of each PLAC cardholder who borrows materials from them as well as the number of items borrowed by a PLAC cardholder.

Library Reporting Responsibilities

Statistics. Each public library is expected to report all required borrowing statistics on the Public Library Access Card Program as a part of the Annual Report. The Board President shall attest to the accuracy of the report submitted on PLAC.

Eligible Materials for Loan. Each public library is responsible to communicate to PLAC cardholders the eligible list of loan items. Two ways to communicate to the cardholders is on the library website and as a handout detailing what library materials are eligible for loan to PLAC cardholders. For illustration of how to list on a library website visit the Allen County Public Library borrower page at www.acpl.lib.in.us/aboutus/borrowing.html#plac

Failure to Report. Failure to submit a complete statistical report to the Indiana State Library by the established deadline will result in the following action taken: Determination that the library is in non-compliance with Minimum Standards for Public Libraries and the withholding of state and federal funds to the library by the Indiana State Library.

PLAC Reimbursement to Libraries Based on Net Loans

Payment of funds for the PLAC program is paid out on the basis of net loans (IC 4-23-7.1-5.2(d)). Money paid into the PLAC program fund to the Indiana State Library plus the interest earned on this fund during a calendar year will be divided by the number of net loans made to PLAC cardholders and the resulting figure will be the per net loan figure paid to libraries. Each eligible public library will receive payment for its net loans, made during the previous calendar year, by August 1 of each year

PLAC net loans are defined as the number of loans made by a library to PLAC cardholders from outside its district less the number of loans made by PLAC cardholders from within its district at other libraries.

To receive payment public libraries with net PLAC loans must meet Minimum Standards for Public Libraries in order to be eligible for reimbursement through the Public Library Access Card Program.

Procedures for Recordkeeping:

1. Keep data on file at your library for PLAC card purchases:
 - Name;
 - Address;
 - Phone (if available)
 - Cash/check#
 - PLAC Number
 - Expiration date (one year from date of issue).

- When a PLAC cardholder uses the PLAC to borrow materials at your library, keep the usual information that you would need to issue one of your local cards. Keep a record of the name, address, PLAC #, and expiration date.

- For each use by a PLAC borrower, record the home library of the PLAC cardholder and the number of items borrowed. Some libraries keep this as manual record and others automated circulation systems retain the records. (This information is VERY IMPORTANT and will be used to figure the reimbursement to libraries in the PLAC Program.)

Recordkeeping: Before Library Migrates to New Integrated Library System (Circulation)

- Always retain the circulation records regarding PLAC borrowers and loans for reporting in the Annual Statistics.
- Ask vendor, including Evergreen Indiana, about retention of the PLAC circulation records.
- Generate end of system report of circulation statistics with PLAC data to backup records. Keep hardcopy if possible.

Statewide Reciprocal Borrowing

Participating libraries sign a statewide reciprocal borrowing covenant agreement that allows users from any other participating library to borrow books in person at public libraries all over Indiana. The reciprocal borrowing covenant agreement is found online at www.in.gov/library/lldresources.htm

Any person who has a current resident library card from their local library can use Reciprocal Borrowing privileges to borrow from other libraries that participate in the statewide agreement.

Cardholders from contracting townships are not eligible for this program.

A current list of participants is included at the end of this chapter.

For those libraries wishing to participate in the state wide reciprocal borrowing program, a covenant has been included in this chapter. It must be filled out and returned to the LDO office in order to participate in the program and be added to the list.

Any questions need to be directed to the Indiana State Library, Library Development Office at 1-800-451-6028.

DO NOT REQUIRE A PLAC CARD, if the patron's home library is on the Statewide Reciprocal Borrowing List and they are a taxing resident of that home library. A list of participating libraries can be found at the end of this chapter.

Any 2 or more libraries may sign a local reciprocal borrowing covenant to allow only those libraries to participate in a reciprocal borrowing program that includes their libraries and not participate statewide. This agreement is at the consent of the local library board and not required by state law.

PLAC, on the other hand, is state law and all public libraries in Indiana are required to sell a PLAC card to anyone who has a current and valid public library card from any other public library in the state.

Local Reciprocal Borrowing

A local or regional agreement is defined as an agreement between two or more libraries that allows residents of each library district to borrow items from a public library in the other library district(s), or a resolution by a local library board that the library will allow anyone with a public library card from another library in the state to borrow materials.

All local agreements must be in writing and approved by the participating libraries' boards of trustees. For recordkeeping purposes, copies of local agreements are filed with the Indiana State Library.

Do not issue the PLAC card to residents of your library district who wish only to use libraries that have local agreements with your library. (However, you would issue the PLAC if one of your residents wants to borrow materials from a library that does not have a local agreement with your library.)

Do not count loans made to individuals whose libraries have local agreements as part of the PLAC Program. The only loans that are reimbursed in the PLAC Program are those made to PLAC cardholders.

Non-Resident Fees

According to Indiana Code (IC 36-12-2-25), a resident of Indiana in an unserved area may purchase library services from one of the 237 library districts. The fee for a nonresident card is at least the sum of $25.00 or the library's expenditure per capita, if that amount is greater than $25.00; the PLAC fee is in addition to the nonresident fee. A nonresident fee may be set higher than the library's operating fund expenditure per capita. The amounts of the operating fund expenditure per capita for public libraries are found in latest year of Public Library Statistics Table 4 www.in.gov/library/4841.htm.

Reciprocal Borrowing Covenant

WHEREAS, it is to the advantage of the people of Indiana that intellectual materials be accessible to them; and

WHEREAS, public libraries have been developed to promote access to intellectual materials available in organized collections of such materials in locally supported public libraries; and

WHEREAS, the parties to this agreement desire to fulfill their obligations and purposes in this regard do

HEREBY, covenant between them on behalf of the people in their library district to permit any person holding a valid resident borrower’s card from any library which is a party to the Covenant access to circulating materials, such an arrangement being generally referred to as reciprocal borrowing, subject only to the conditions set forth here following:

1. Users of this arrangement are expected to
 - a. Conform to the rules and regulations of the institution from which they borrow
 - b. Present a valid resident borrower’s card issued by their local library as evidence of their eligibility for this service; and
 - c. Pay promptly all delinquency charges which may accrue against them
2. Participating libraries agree to assist each other, if necessary (on request) in recovering materials.
3. Participating libraries may limit this activity to specific eligible materials at their discretion, but are encouraged to provide unlimited access.
4. Participating libraries are not required to take reserves or initiate interlibrary loan requests for reciprocal borrowers.

This covenant becomes effective on the latest date shown below and shall remain in force until either party wishes it modified or canceled. A copy of this agreement shall be filed with the Indiana State Library upon signing, whereas to facilitate the compilation of a statewide listing of participating libraries.
