

BEST BOOKS of Indiana

2011 FINALIST
FOR POETRY

Seeded Light
Edward Byrne

Seeded Light, as the title implies includes many poems where nature plays an important part. An emphasis on human relationships intertwines with natural description to give these poems philosophical and emotional depths. Byrne brings to life an old family farm gone fallow, a visit to an inn where the speaker spent his honeymoon, and Lester Young playing tenor sax.