Edna May Green papers
S2627

This finding aid was produced using the Archivists' Toolkit
May 15, 2017
Describing Archives: A Content Standard
Table of Contents

Summary Information ................................................................................................................................. 3

Biographical Note ........................................................................................................................................ 4

Scope and Contents .................................................................................................................................... 4

Arrangement ................................................................................................................................................ 4

Administrative Information ......................................................................................................................... 4

Related Materials .................................................................................................................................... 5

Controlled Access Headings ...................................................................................................................... 5
Summary Information

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Repository</th>
<th>Rare Books and Manuscripts</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Creator</td>
<td>Green, Edna May</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Title</td>
<td>Edna May Green papers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Date</td>
<td>1918-1954</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Extent</td>
<td>0.02 Cubic feet 1 folder; 2 oversize folder</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Language</td>
<td>English</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Text [Folder]</td>
<td>S2627</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Preferred Citation

Edna May Green papers, Rare Books and Manuscripts, Indiana State Library
Biographical Note

Edna May Green was a composer and song writer in Indianapolis, Indiana. She was married to Calvin W. Green. Green died on March 15, 1982 at the age of 94 in Carmel, Indiana.

Scope and Contents

This collection includes correspondence, tear sheets, music copyrights, stock certificates, sheet music, news clippings, songs, poems, other writings, and a photograph from Edna May Green in Indianapolis, Indiana ranging from 1918 to 1954, regarding Edna May Green, her compositions and other works. Correspondants, include Josiah K. Lilly and various music publishers; most correspondence deals with Green's attempts to have her music more widely played and recognized. The tear sheets and clippings are composed of pages torn from The Journeyman Barber Hairdresser and Cosmetologist, in which Green published poetry on a regular basis.

Arrangement

This collection is arranged by subject.

Administrative Information

Publication Information

Rare Books and Manuscripts

Conditions Governing Access

This collection is open for research.
Conditions Governing Use

Legal title, copyright, and literary rights reside with Rare Books and Manuscripts, Indiana State Library, Indianapolis, IN. All requests to publish or quote from manuscripts must be submitted to Rare Books and Manuscripts.

Custodial History

This collection was received by Rare Books and Manuscripts as a purchase from Frank Flora in 1981/01.

Accruals

No further additions are expected.

Processing Information

Collection processing completed 2017/03/01 by Lauren Patton. EAD finding aid created 2017/03/01 by Lauren Patton.

Related Materials

Related Archival Material

Materials relating to this collection may be found in the following collections in Rare Books and Manuscripts, Indiana State Library, Indianapolis, IN:

- OB001, Folders 9-10: Edna May Green oversize collection
- ID: Collection Title
- ID: Collection Title

Controlled Access Headings

Genre(s)

- Clippings
• Correspondence
• Songs
• Stock certificates

Personal Name(s)

• Green, Edna May

Subject(s)

• Composers
• Music
• Music--Indiana
• Newspaper articles
• Poetry
• Sheet music
• Women composers