

Lake Michigan Underwater Archaeological Management Plan

Overview

- Goal: Develop a management plan for significant underwater archaeological resources in state waters of Lake Michigan.

Early Efforts

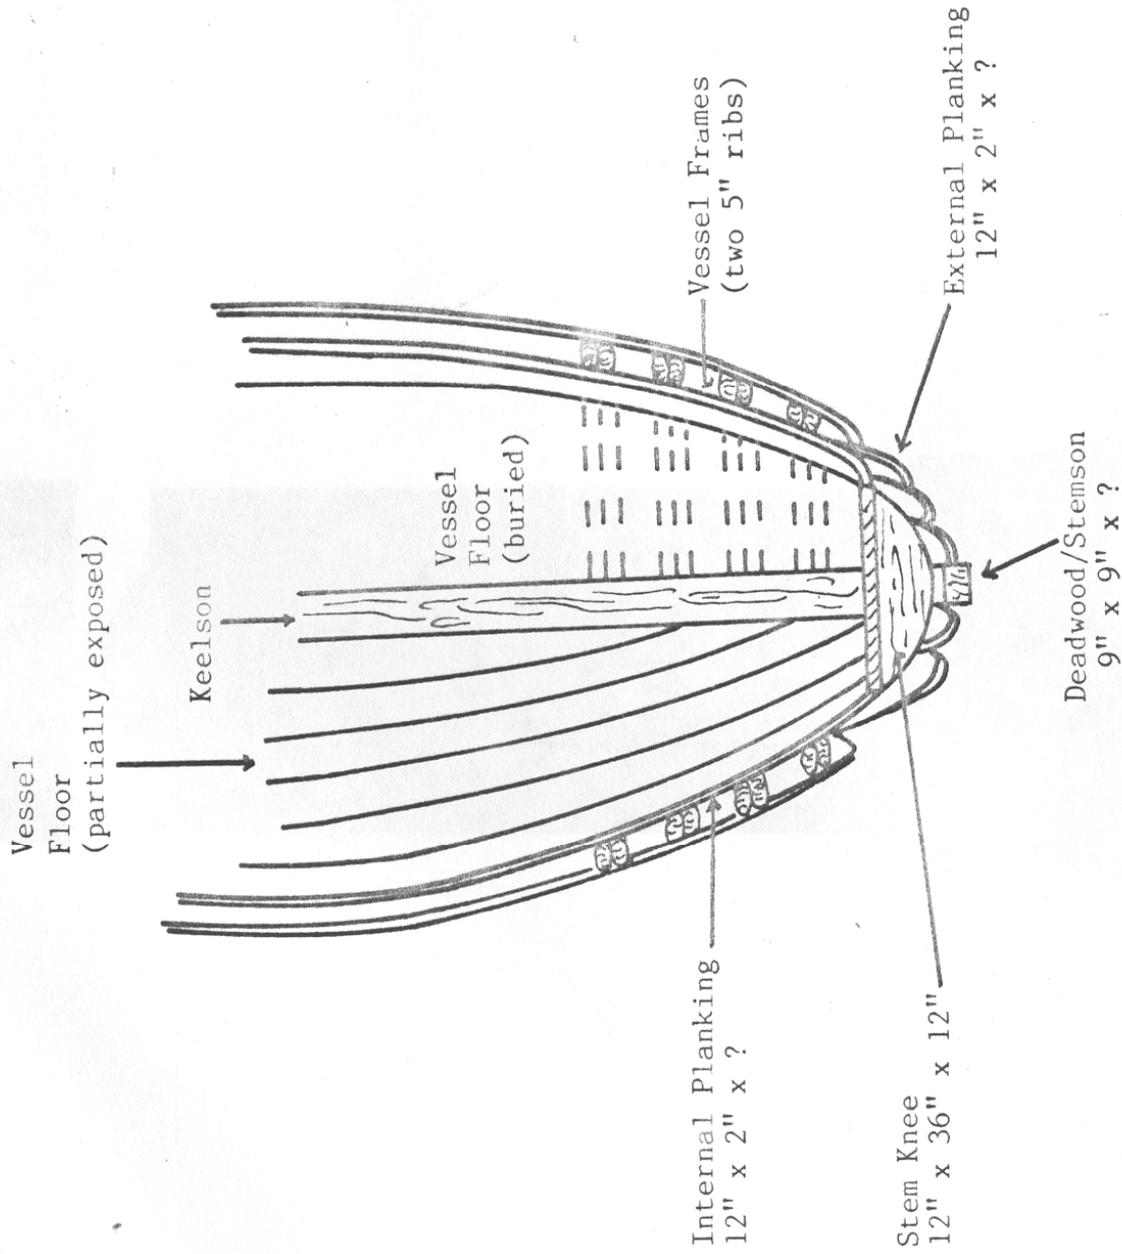

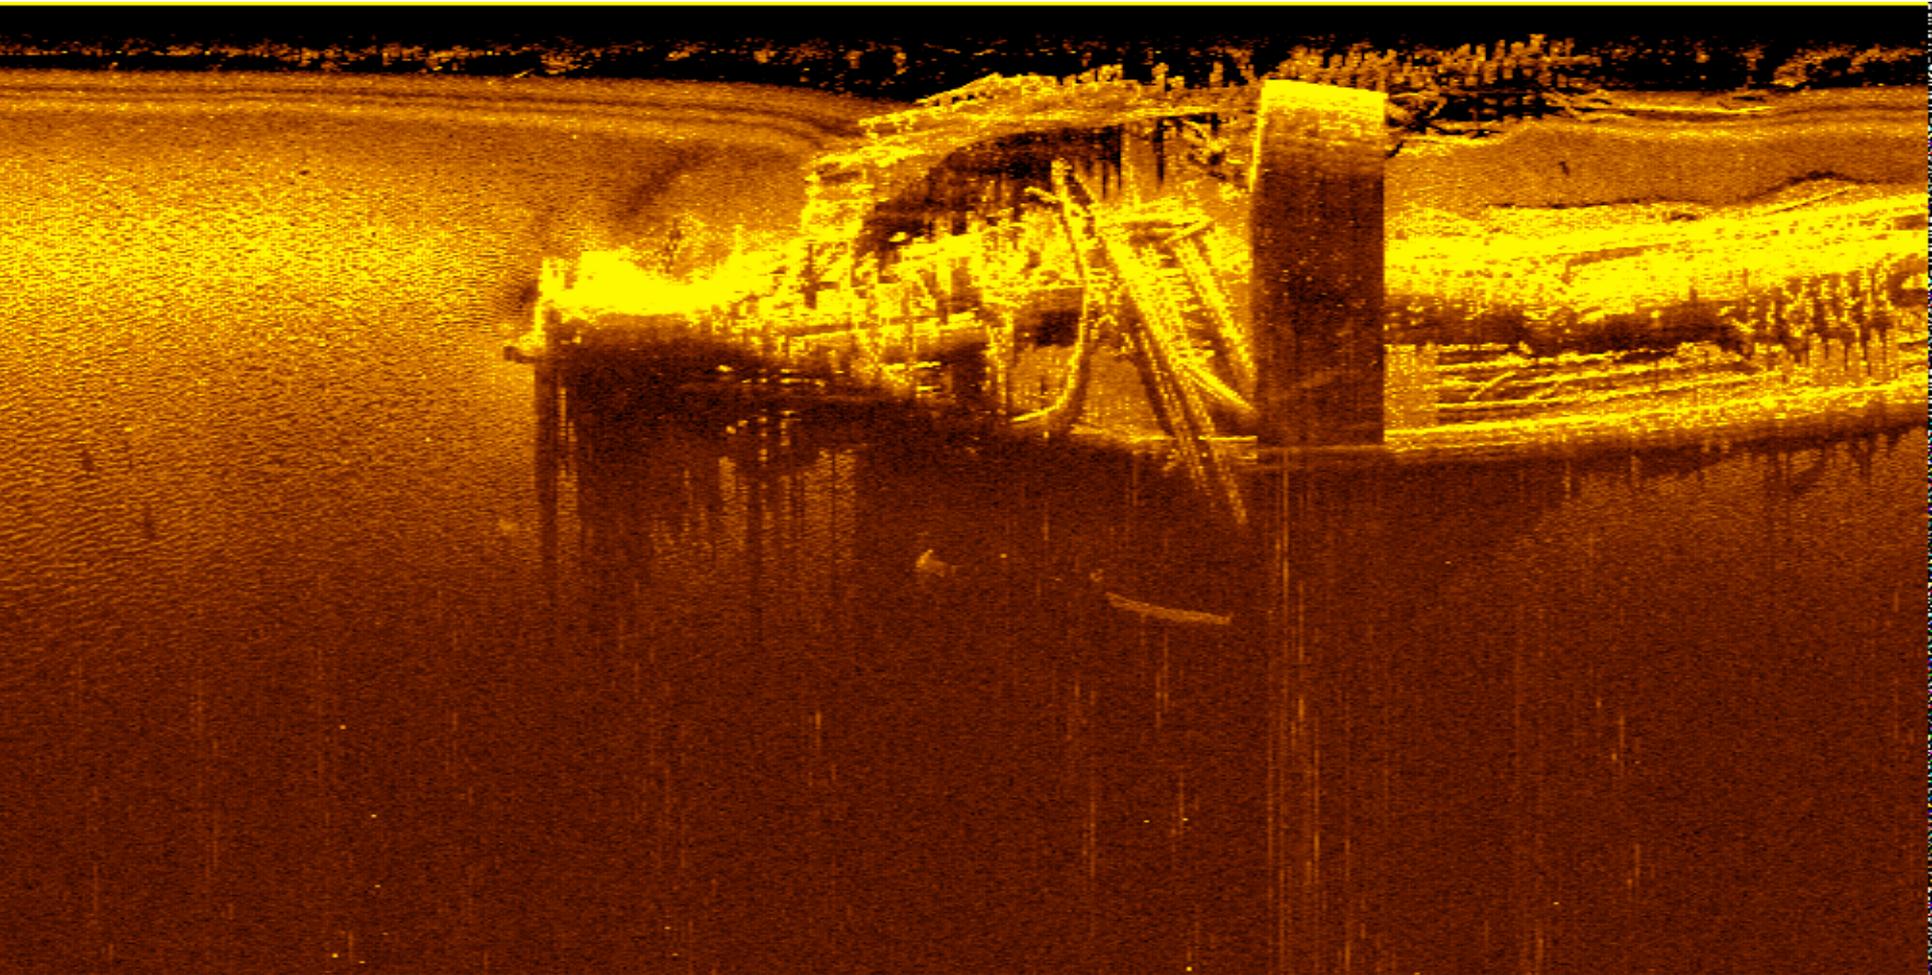

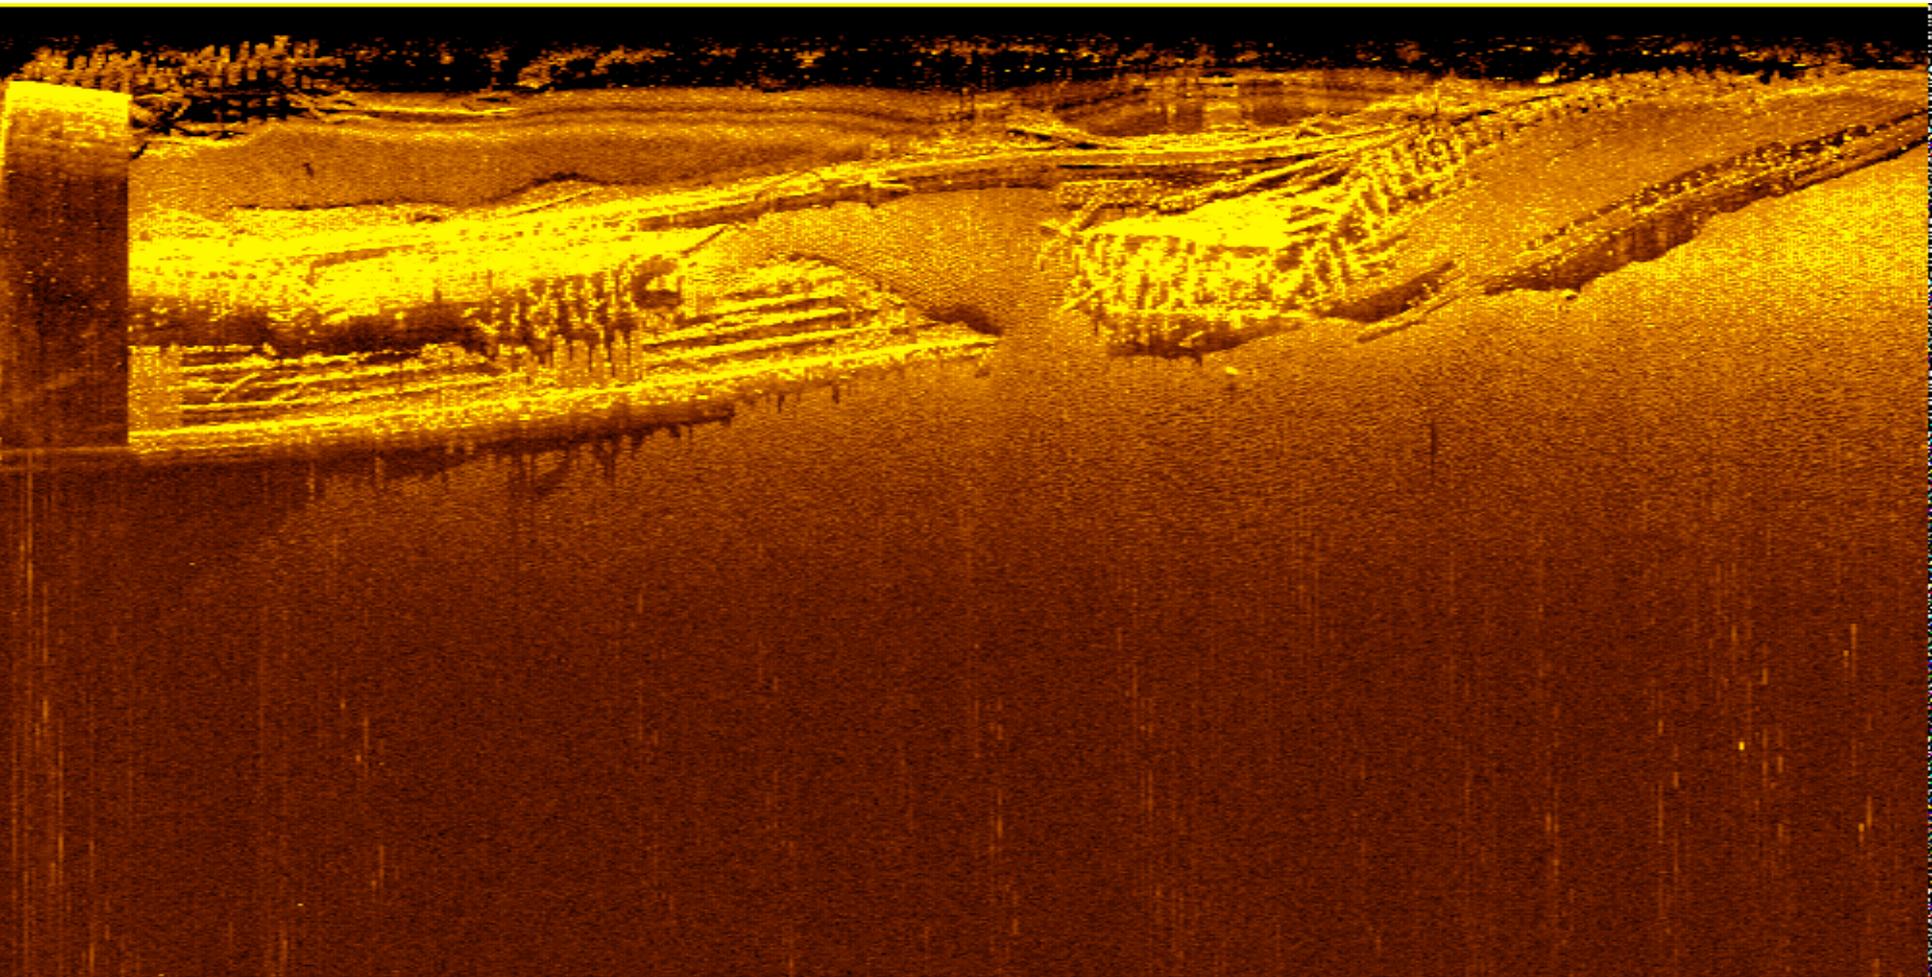

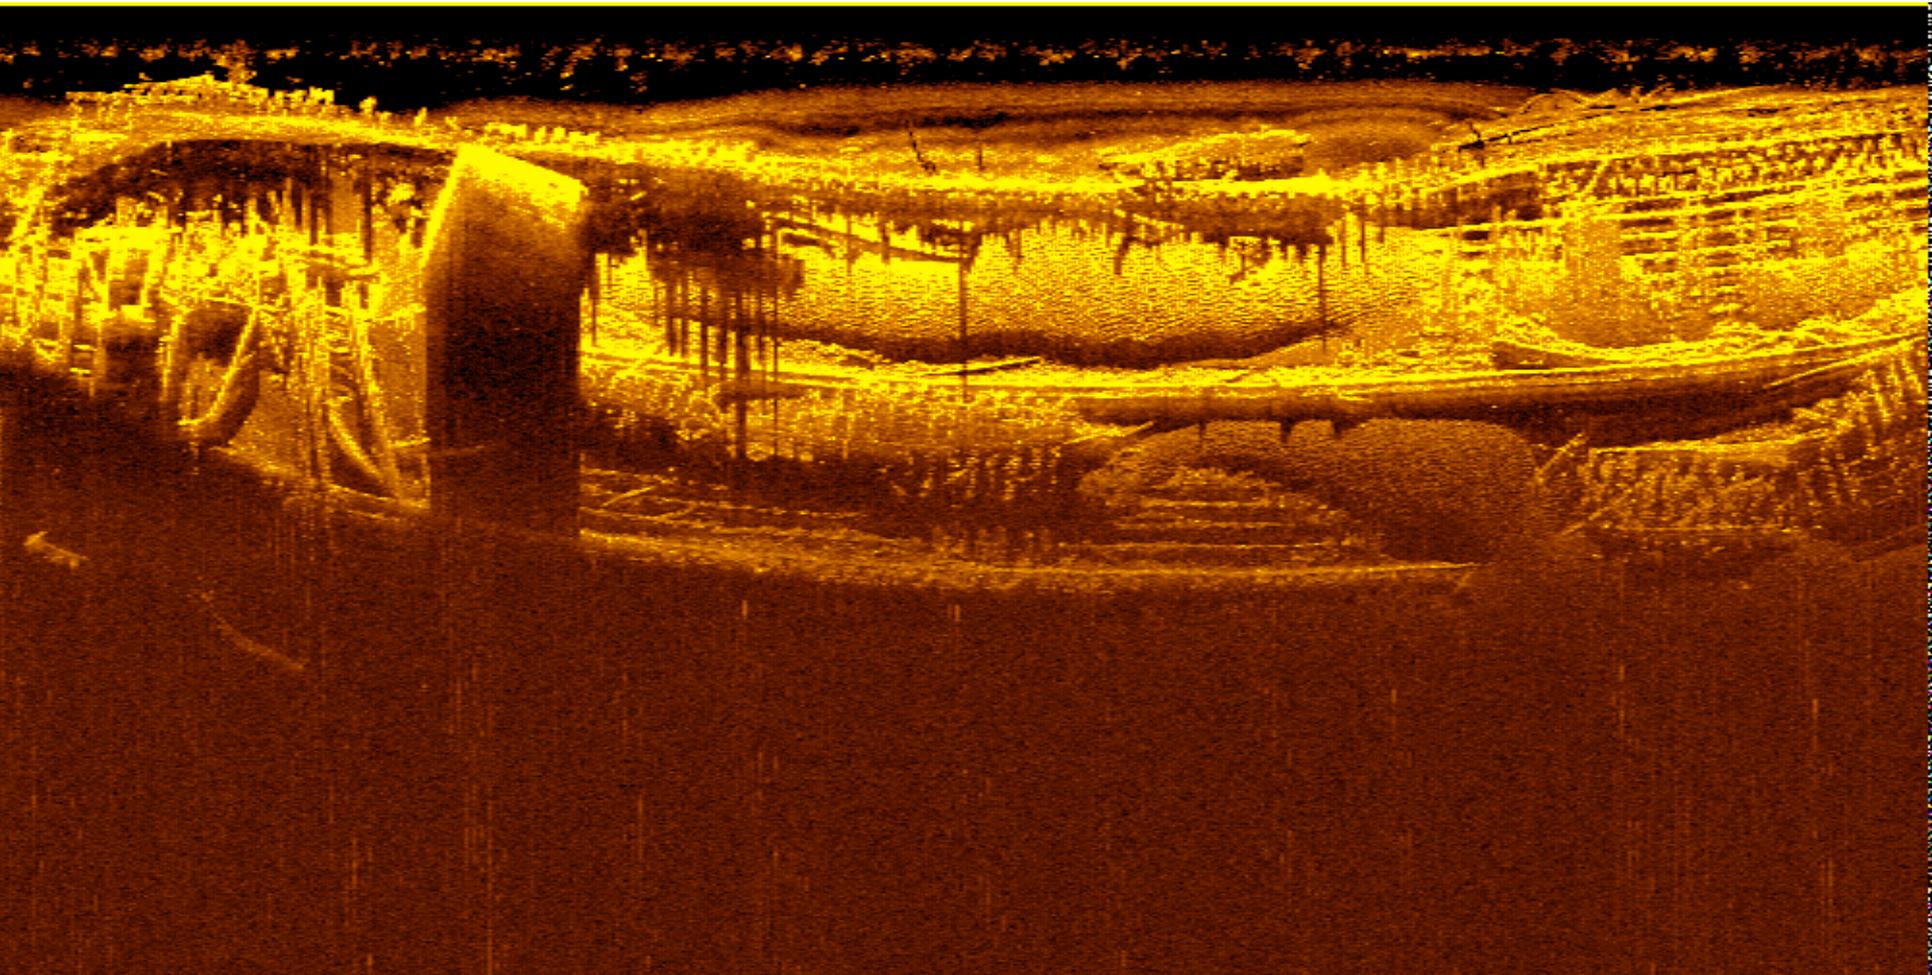

Figure 8-47. Plan View of the Exposed Bow of Unknown #4.
SCALE: 1" = 4'

New Technology

The “Alpha” Wreck

Photography by Jeremy Gantz - Shore Magazine 9/22/08

Site Map

Chapter

1

The Back StoryWilliam A. BriggsNorthwest IndianaThe Underground Railroad

2

Research Source ListSeason 2006 - Mapping & SurveySeason 2007 - ExcavationShipWatch

3

Presentation - Devil's PunchbowlLecture Schedule for the Fall of 2007Lecture Schedule for 2008Meet the Briggs Team

4

Home PageList of All PagesExit Page, Credits, & Hot LinksContact Us

Policy Issues

- Federal Admiralty Law
- Local Management Involvement
- Definition Clarifications
 - Abandoned
 - Licensure
 - General Licensure
- Gray Areas
 - Above OHW
 - IDNLS

Next Steps

- Underwater Archaeological Management Plan Scope Development - May
- Plan RFP - June
- Multi-scan Work - Ongoing
- Public Focus Groups – August-September
- Plan Development – November-January
- Policy Recommendations – February 2010
- Outreach - Ongoing