

Katherine (Kate) Guerrero

Zionsville, Indiana

- Attorney
- Owner, KMG Mediation
- Adjunct Professor, Ivy Tech Community College
- Contracted Mediator for the Indiana Department of Education

Travel: Statewide

Areas of Particular Interest:

- Employment Contracts
- Wrongful Discharge
- Sexual Harassment
- Personal Injury
- Premises Liability
- Property Covenants
- Medical Malpractice
- Child Services

Additional Information:

Katherine M. Guerrero is a practicing mediator and owner of KMG Mediation. Ms. Guerrero mediates disputes in the area of special education for the Department of Education. She also regularly mediates family disputes through alternative dispute resolution programs in both Boone county and Johnson county, Indiana. Ms. Guerrero has been adjunct faculty at Ivy Tech Community College, Indianapolis, Indiana since January, 2008. She teaches Legal Ethics, Contracts and Commercial Law, Introduction to Paralegal Studies, among other courses.

Ms. Guerrero received her undergraduate degree in Psychology with a minor in Sociology and a concentration in History from Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana ('01). Ms. Guerrero received her JD from Indiana University Robert H McKinney School of Law ('06).