Economic Development, Chair

Jeffrey J. Good graduated from Purdue University in 1986 with a degree in Restaurant Hotel Management. His experience includes two years as Northeast Region Real Estate Coordinator for Taco Bell and Vice President of Operations and Development of Carlton Lodge. In 1994 he formed Valparaiso-based Good Hospitality Services Inc. (GHS) to assist first-time owners of limited service hotels. Today, GHS manages 24 hotels in five states for brands such as Hampton Inns, Homewood Suites by Hilton, Holiday Inn Express, Fairfield Inn, TownePlace Suites by Marriott, Baymont Inn, and Econo Lodge. Good is also a key executive for HRC Hotels LLC and assists in the development and management of the private REIT. He is a member of the Hampton Inn Owners Advisory Council and the Homewood Suites by Hilton Owners Advisory Council.

About the Northwest Indiana Regional Development Authority

Established in 2005 through a bipartisan effort including former Governor Mitchell E. Daniels, Congressman Peter J. Visclosky, key state legislators, and local elected officials, the RDA is quasi-governmental development entity entrusted to make public investment decisions within a regional framework for supporting catalytic infrastructure projects and inducing private sector investment. Its mission is to be a catalyst for transforming the economy and quality of life for Northwest Indiana. For more information, visit www.in.gov/rda and www.rdatransformation.com.
