Presentation of the 2006 Indiana Election Report

This document includes the official returns of the 2006 Indiana Primary Election and the 2006 Indiana General Election.

The Primary Election Returns for the following office are included in this order:

United States Senator
United States Representative
Indiana State Senator
Indiana State Representative
Judge of the Circuit Court (in certain counties)
Judge of the Superior Court (in certain counties)
Judge of the Probate Court (in St. Joseph County)
Prosecuting Attorney
Judge of the Small Claims Court (in Marion County)

The Primary Election returns list the major political parties in alphabetical order in each election district, with each candidate for the party's nomination to that office listed in alphabetical order by surname. An asterisk indicates the candidate declared nominated following the primary. The 2006 Indiana Election Report then sets forth information concerning the total number of registered voters and percentage of voter turnout for Indiana and for each county for the primary election.

The General Election Returns for the following office are included in this order:

United States Senator
Secretary of State of Indiana
Auditor of State of Indiana
Treasurer of State of Indiana
United States Representative
Indiana State Senator
Indiana State Representative
Judge of the Circuit Court (in certain counties)
Judge of the Superior Court (in certain counties)
Judge of the Probate Court (in St. Joseph County)
Prosecuting Attorney
Judge of the Small Claims Court (in Marion County)

The General Election returns list the candidates in order according to the number of votes received. An asterisk indicates the candidate declared nominated following the primary.

The General Election returns also include the results for the ballot question concerning the retention of a Justice of the Indiana Supreme Court, the retention of certain Judges of the Indiana Court of Appeals, and the results of the ballot questions concerning the retention of certain Judges of the Superior Courts in Lake and St. Joseph Counties.

There were no public questions on the 2006 General Election ballot concerning proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State of Indiana.

The 2006 Indiana Election Report sets forth information concerning the total number of registered voters and percentage of voter turnout for Indiana and for each county for the general election.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the Secretary of State, the members of the Indiana Election Commission, the staff of the Indiana Election Division, the members of the County Election Boards, the Circuit Court Clerks, County Election Directors, County Voter Registration Officers, and every individual who assisted county election boards, or served as an inspector, judge, poll clerk, or sheriff in a polling place in Indiana. The dedication of each of these individuals to the efficiency and integrity of the electoral process made the 2006 primary and general elections a success.

If the Election Division can provide you with additional information or assistance, please contact this office.

May 2, 2006 Primary Election Results

Post-Primary Contests and Recounts

Following the 2006 primary election, no contest or recount petitions were filed with the Indiana Election Division for the nomination to a federal, state, or state legislative office.

Following the 2006 primary election, no contest or recount petitions were filed with any county election board for the nomination to a judicial office or the office of Prosecuting Attorney.

Candidate Vacancies Occurring After the Primary

Ralph Donald Ayres, the Republican Party nominee for Indiana State Representative, District 4, filed a statement of withdrawal as the nominee on July 17, 2006. The Republican Party filed a Certificate of Candidate Selection to Fill an Early Ballot Vacancy for State Legislative Office with the Election Division on August 14, 2006, designating Ed Soliday as the Republican Party nominee for this office.

Andrew P. Thomas, the Republican Party nominee for Indiana State Representative, District 4, filed a statement of withdrawal as the nominee on July 17, 2006. The Republican Party filed a Certificate of Candidate Selection to Fill an Early Ballot Vacancy for State Legislative Office with the Election Division on August 3, 2006, designating Amos P. Thomas as the Republican Party nominee for this office.

Following the May 2, 2006 primary and in accordance with the procedures outlined in Indiana Code 3-13-1, the Democratic and Republican Parties also filled certain candidate vacancies resulting from the failure of any individual to seek nomination to an office by filing as a candidate in that major political party's primary.

Likewise, following procedures outlined in Indiana Code 3-13-1-20, the Libertarian Party filled certain general election ballot candidate vacancies resulting from the failure of the Libertarian Party to nominate a candidate for an office at that party's state convention.

Following procedures outlined in Indiana Code 3-8-6, individuals were certified as independent candidates or candidates of other political parties for placement on the general election ballot after filing petitions of nomination to an office signed by a sufficient number of registered voters residing within the election district for the office.

Following procedures outlined in Indiana Code 3-8-2-2.5, individuals were certified as declared write-in candidates for offices on the general election ballot after filing a declaration of intent to be a write-in candidate. The names of write-in candidates are not printed on the general election ballot. The names of write-in candidates who file their declaration of intent with the Election Division are certified to the respective county election boards under Indiana Code 3-8-7-30.

November 7, 2006 General Election Results

Post-Primary Contests and Recounts

A recount petition for the election of a United States Senator was filed with the Indiana Election Division following the 2006 general election.
