CONRAD INDIANAPOLIS ROLLS OUT SUMMER APPRECIATION RATE TO CELEBRATE SERVICE TO OUR COUNTRY *Now Government Employees and Teachers Can Book $94 Appreciation Rate

INDIANAPOLIS, May 19, 2010 – Conrad Indianapolis is recognizing citizens that both serve and protect our country by offering a special appreciation room rate of $94 throughout the summer. Government employees and teachers will now have the opportunity to book rooms at the Conrad at the discounted rate from June 1, 2010 through September 6, 2010.

The “Government and Teacher Appreciation” offer is a special invitation to active and veteran military men and women, firefighters, police officers, education staff and teachers, and all other civil servants. As a token of appreciation for their service, Conrad Indianapolis invites these guests to experience the city’s most acclaimed hotel.

“In its fourth year, we are pleased to bring back the popular Government and Teacher Appreciation rate. As schools are out for the summer and leisure travel is on the rise, we hope many families will consider our city and Conrad as a perfect weekend getaway destination,” said General Manager, Greg Tinsley.

To make reservations under the “Government and Teacher Appreciation” offer, call (1) 317 713 5000 and reference promotional code G3 or go online at www.conradindianapolis.com and check the Government/Military box. The offer is based upon availability through September 6, 2010 only. Official government ID or proof of educational employment is required upon check-in. Cannot be combined with any other offer and black out dates apply.
