

Indiana Memory

THE GREENTOWN GEM

COUNTY FINANCE TO BE UNCHANGED

HEAVY RAINFALL COMES WILL BE A DISASTROUS YEAR FOR THE COUNCIL TO ADVISE THE PEOPLE OF THE COUNTY FINANCE TO BE UNCHANGED...

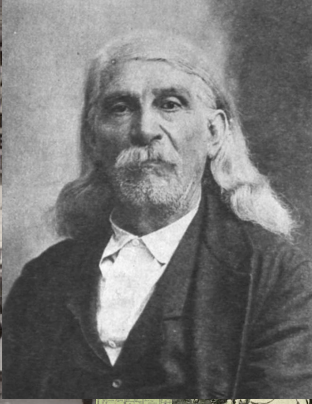

*Philadelphia Pa
Sept 16/93*

Dear Mother and Sister,

I will try and write you a few lines to try to let you know how I am a getting along it has been some time since I have wrote to and I expect that you would like to hear from me one more my eyes are some better than they have been I have been shut up in a dark room for four weeks but I am out at this time I cannot see to write much at this time but hope that my eyes will get so I can write more the next time this is all that my pen will let me write at this time
Write soon

HAMILTON
COMPILED BY G.J.

Lyric
ON STAGE TODAY
ROY ACUFF
KITTY WELLS
JOHNNY JACK

- Indiana Memory is a digital library that provides free access to online resources about Indiana's history and culture.

- Indiana Memory is a collaboration of Indiana libraries, historical societies, museums, archives and related cultural organizations sponsored by the Indiana State Library.

- Indiana Memory includes photographs, books, personal papers, maps, newspapers, oral histories, videos and more.

- Indiana Memory provides teacher resources, including links to resources from the Library of Congress as well as lesson plans and tools developed specifically for Indiana Memory collections.

- Indiana Memory provides support for digitization projects:

- Free consultations
- Presentations and workshops
- Mobile scanning units (flatbed, book and slide scanners)
- Grants
- Assistance with hosting digital content
- Digital preservation solution for long-term storage and access to digital files

For more information:

in.gov/library/indianamemory.htm

This project is made possible by Library Services and Technology Act funding from the Institute of Museum and Library Services.

Indiana Memory

indianamemory.org

Indiana State Library

in.gov/library

315 W. Ohio St.
Indianapolis, IN 46202

Indiana State Library Digital Collections

<http://digitalcollections.library.in.gov/>