Indiana Professional
Licensing Agency

MOTION TO AMEND

Comes now the State of Indiana (“Petitioner”), by counsel Deputy Attorney General Sha’na Terry, regarding the Petition for Summary Suspension filed against the pharmacist license of Jared Bachman, R.Ph. (“Respondent”). The State respectfully requests to amend said petition, and in support, Petitioner alleges and states:

1. On September 26, 2023, the State filed a petition for summary suspension.
2. The bottom paragraph unintentionally states a request for the board to set an emergency hearing and “suspend Respondent’s pharmacy technician license.”
3. The Respondent has a pharmacist license, and the State is requesting a hearing to summarily suspend his pharmacist license as expressed throughout the rest of the petition.

A copy of the Amended Petition for Summary Suspension is submitted along with this motion.

Wherefore the State respectfully requests that the motion to amend be granted, and the amended petition for summary judgment be accepted to clarify that the emergency hearing is to suspend Respondent’s pharmacist license.

Respectfully submitted,

Office of the Attorney General of Indiana
