ORDER ON VALIDITY OF TEST SCORES AND DISMISSAL OF REINSTATEMENT PROCEEDINGS

The Indiana Board of Pharmacy ("Board") commenced an administrative hearing on July 9, 2012, in Room C of the Conference Center of the Indiana Government Center South, 402 West Washington Street, Indianapolis, Indiana, concerning Freeborn Esigbone's ("Esigbone") apparent request to reinstate his license.

The State of Indiana was represented by Deputy Attorney General, Darren Covington. Esigbone appeared in person and waived his right to be represented by counsel.

Before the hearing began, however, it became evident that Esigbone had not intended to ask for a hearing on the reinstatement of his license. But he was concerned that the validity of the passing scores he obtained on the NABLEX and the MPJE be preserved. To address that issue, the board voted to consider his scores to be "current" for another year past their current expiration.

In addition, the Board dismissed the reinstatement proceedings without prejudice as they had been instituted prematurely.

ORDERED this 18 of July 2012.
