

FY19 Region 12 Grant Recipients

Arts Organization Support Grant Recipients

Region 12 Arts Partner, Hanover College

Rick Bennett
bennetr@hanover.edu

P.O. Box 108
Hanover, IN 47243

region12.hanover.edu

Grant Recipient	County
Clarksville Little Theatre	Clark
Arts Council of Southern Indiana	Floyd
Carnegie Center for Art and History, Inc.	Floyd

Arts Project Support Grant Recipients

Region 12 Arts Partner, Hanover College

Rick Bennett
bennetr@hanover.edu

P.O. Box 108
Hanover, IN 47243

region12.hanover.edu

Grant Recipient	Project Title	County
-----------------	---------------	--------

Charlestown-Clark County Public Library	The Art of Out Space	Clark
---	----------------------	-------

The Charlestown-Clark County Public Libraries will offer quality art programs for the entire community with its 2019 Summer Art Program. Our theme will be “A Universe of Stories: The Art of Outer Space at Your Library!”. We are planning to explore the art of the stars. We are planning on having four weeks of art programs for elementary school-age children, one week of art programs for teens and one week of art programs for adults. This program would run from June 3, 2019 - June 28, 2019.

Communities In Schools of Clark County, Inc.	Life Theatre in High-Needs Elementary Schools	Clark
--	---	-------

CIS of Clark County will contract with Commonwealth Theatre: Blue Apple Outreach of Louisville, KY to bring Children’s Theatre programming to 15 Clark County elementary schools in an assembly-style presentation. Commonwealth Theatre will ensure the artistic content aligns with ISTEP+ standards. Teacher resources are made available to further the use of arts in the classroom.

Greater Clark County Schools	Much Ado About Something	Clark
------------------------------	--------------------------	-------

The grant will tie in performing & visual arts, literature, and life choices, Students will analyze the process of characters’ good & bad choices in KY Shakespeare’s 2-person performance of Much Ado about Nothing, apply a similar flowchart process to attaining career goals & create clay relief self-portraits of themselves in that future career. Students will examine Picasso self-portraits in a walking tour & see/discuss science (STEAM) applied in creating & firing clay at Silica Art Studio.

Jeffersonville Arts Alliance	Steamboat Nights Lanturn Parade	Clark
------------------------------	---------------------------------	-------

The Jeffersonville Arts Alliance would like to host community workshops on the art of lantern making. The ending result in an outdoor, nighttime, walking art exhibit of the community’s creative pieces! The glowing procession of light and color will add to the illuminated Steamboat Nights Heritage Festival occurring on Labor Day weekend this year. We are hoping this will become a tradition as this is our 2nd annual Lantern Parade. The brilliance of the creative spirit will illuminate a community!

Jeffersonville High School Instrumental Band Boosters, Inc.	Access to Artists	Clark
---	-------------------	-------

Access to Artists, the proposed project, will provide a weekly group lesson by an accomplished professional musician to students in the Jeffersonville High School Band Program on their respective instruments. The project will be structured into the weekly band curriculum. The IAC Regional Arts Grant funds will be used to compensate the professional musicians for their services to the program. This funding would allow the organization to continue and expand the current program.

West Crawford Elementary School

West Crawford Elementary Arts Project

Crawford

A fine arts presenter will provide art education monthly while a music presenter will provide music education weekly for K-5 students. Other fine arts activities will be presented throughout the school year and field trips will take place. The funds from the IAC will help support the fine arts program with matching funds from our local Parent/Teacher Organization, local businesses and our elementary school.

---

IU Southeast Ogle Center

Children and Family Series Programming

Floyd

The Ogle Center's Children and Family Series brings high-quality educational and cultural programming to K-12 students in Southern Indiana at no cost to families or schools. We seek support from the Indiana Arts Commission to bring nationally recognized programming to the area. Through partnership with area schools, this project will reach a broad cross section of students. We expect up to 12,500 Southern Indiana residents to benefit directly from the series.

---

Hayswood Theatre Group, Inc.

2018/2019 Season

Harrison

Hayswood Theatre's 2018/2019 Full Season will consist of a wide range of 5 performing arts shows that will provide Harrison County and surrounding areas with opportunities for people of all ages to participate in or enjoy live theatre performances. Indiana Arts Commission grant funds will be used to enhance 4 of our 5 shows and present quality performances for our community and encourage performing arts appreciation in Southern Indiana.

---

Lanesville Community School Corporation

Moving to the Words and Music

Harrison

Moving to the Words and Music brings Fine Art professionals into our classrooms. Exploring music, theater, visual arts and storytelling with our students in grades K-12 during the 2018-2019 school year. This grant will allow us to expand our students' scope of the world using visual arts, music and drama. The grant will allow our students to participate 3 music workshops, 3 visual arts workshops, 1 workshop combining theatre with poetry and 4 assemblies and support staff for our music dept.

---

Main Street Corydon IN Inc

Arts Midwest World Fest

Harrison

The Arts Midwest World Fest spring event will allow our county to host Unni Baksaap from Norway. The week long visit will include daily workshops at all three school districts along with a public concert at the end of the week. over 4000 youth will be impacted by their visit and have the opportunity learn about their culture and music. The funds will be used for housing, technical support, and Marketing.

---

North Harrison Band Boosters

North Harrison Winter Performance

Harrison

North Harrison Band is struggling to find success due to low enrollment in the full band program. We have found a niche with Winter Performance Ensemble enfoldng drumline and guard. Indiana Arts Commission funds will be used to pay for nine professional judges for the Tri-State Marching Arts Competition that North Harrison High School will host on February 9, 2019 ($3,500) as well as five artistic instructors ($1,500) to advance North Harrison Winter Percussion Ensemble students in 2018-19.

---

Cornerstone Society, Inc

Re-Imagine Madison

Jefferson

This project would create an eye-catching, artistic "entrance" to the city parking lot based on historic photos, requiring people to re-imagine Main Street as it was. A three day event with live performances, typical of what had been, would invite people to experience the city parking lot as a public gathering space for enlightenment and entertainment. Photographers and painters would capture this new "Wesley Chapel, Madison Opera House, Madison Theatre" parking lot.

Friends of the Ohio Theatre, Inc. Shakespeare in Madison Jefferson The Ohio Theatre plans to show a four-movie series of films based on William Shakespeare's life and work. The culmination of this project will be a live performance of Macbeth by Kentucky Shakespeare at the Ohio Theatre. Kentucky Shakespeare will also host a Twelfth Night performance and workshop for two local high schools. IAC funds will be used predominantly to help pay for the film rights for movies and the fees charged by Kentucky Shakespeare.

---

Madison Area Arts Alliance SHARES Workshop Series Jefferson Madison Area Arts Alliance is requesting grant funds to develop a new workshop series--MAAA Shares--This workshop series offers two sets of learning opportunities: 1) ARTIST to ARTIST-artists will teach a topic to a fellow group of artists; and 2) ARTIST to PUBLIC- artist will prepare and teach a topic to the public. IAC grant funds will be used to compensate artists (preparation and teaching); purchase supplies/materials; room rentals; marketing/printing; and administration.

---

Madison Performing Arts Foundation 2018/2019 Concert Season Jefferson The Madison Performing Arts Foundation proposes partial funding for their annual concert series. The 2018-2019 season will consist of ten concerts in the Madison, Indiana area. MPAF concerts typically occur in several downtown churches; all are free and open to the public. These live performances feature guest ensembles and soloists from out of the area as well as local talent. IAC grant funds will assist in paying for artists' fees, a piano rental and tuning, publicity and printing costs.

---

Oak Heritage Conservancy Picturing the Indiana We Imagine Jefferson Our project sparks community-scale conversation about how working farms and natural areas contribute to the character of our rural communities. These are key conversations in times of increased land development and decreased time outdoors, in nature. IAC funds will help us: host amateur photography contest; host online exhibit and travelling exhibits in community spaces; host on-farm introductory "how-to" photography workshops in the community; and give winners mounted prints of their work.

---

Ohio River Valley Folk Society RiverRoots Music Series Jefferson Funding will support the RiverRoots Music Series, an offshoot of the two-day Americana music festival held each June in Madison. The project will keep the spirit of the Festival alive and continue to foster the community's appreciation of the genre. IAC funding will be used to engage a higher-tier performer for the series, while generating further interest in the festival. The project includes in-school musical performances and artists' songwriting workshops.

---

Southwestern Jefferson County Middle and High School Southwestern Bands Jefferson Our organization provides music education and performance opportunities for the students of Southwestern Middle/ High School. We provide music and performance instruction to students in grades 6-12, working with approximately 120 students. For our grant project, we intend to improve the educational experience of all of our students through expanded performance opportunities and venues and by supplying necessary materials to guarantee our students a quality music education experience.

---

Scottsburg Band Parent Association Marching Band Season Scott This project is the 2018 Fall Marching show. Although the program has been in existence for several decades, each year a new show is created. The grant will help with the marching band show design for 2018. A show design is made up of a show concept coordinator, wind books, color guard, band body writers and drill writers.