

Meet your Poetry Out Loud Indiana Coach

Devon Ginn (he/him/they/them) has established long-lasting relationships by working alongside influential arts and culture hubs over the past decade. Devon is a curator at the historic Madam Walker Legacy Center and serves as the vice president of the board at the Indiana Writers Center. Ginn is also an Arts Council of Indianapolis 2020-2021 Creative Renewal Fellow, a 2019-2020

Arts & Culture Leaders of Color Fellow with Americans for the Arts, a placekeeper + placemaker, a 200-hour yoga & meditation teacher, a sound alchemist with Haven Yoga Studio, and a published poet. As a freelance teaching artist, Ginn travels from state-to-state implementing his performance poetry and creative writing lesson plans for high school & college students. Deliberately collaborating with ground-breaking institutions and creatives on the forefront of change, his work as a visual artist, writer, nonprofit administrator, and performance artist is a reflection of all his learned and unlearned experiences.
