With all due disrespect, Charlie Kirk can suck it. He became exactly what he said was ok and acceptable in order to have gun rights. I call that manifestation.

I'm not saying it's right, but I'm saying it's only fitting. And it's only more fitting that people are upset about this but others are left forgotten or called a government conspiracy. When sandy hook or any other victims have justice, then we can talk about Charlie Kirk.

I am all set up and ready to go for day one of three of our hunter gather simulation in my class for US history! Now just wait till we move into a big space like the library and I add pathogens to the mix

Same people calling for sympathy because “he has children” don’t care when the victims ARE children.
