

Peter Lacy—Commissioner

Peter Lacy serves as the Commissioner of the Indiana Bureau of Motor Vehicles. He leads agency initiatives to provide driver and vehicle services in a timely and accurate manner. He and his team have strategically positioned the agency to support Governor Holcomb's fifth pillar; "Provide great government service at a great value to taxpayers." Peter joined the agency in 2015 as the Chief of Staff and was appointed Commissioner by Governor Holcomb in 2017. He brings more than 20 years of private sector experience and knowledge to the BMV, including acquisition integration, ERP system implementation, process improvement, business model transformation, and territory management.

Outside of work, Lacy is active in the community serving as Founding Chair of the Adaptive Movement Programs Board for the IUPUI School of Physical Education & Tourism Management, Board member of Keep Indianapolis Beautiful and the Culver Summer Board. Peter previously served as Board Chair of Girls Inc. of Greater Indianapolis, President of Carmel Girls Lacrosse, and Board Member of Junior Achievement.

Lacy earned his MBA from Xavier University in Cincinnati and his bachelor's degree from The Citadel, The Military College of South Carolina in Charleston. He resides in Carmel with his wife and three children.

Kevin Garvey—Chief Operating Officer

Kevin Garvey was named Chief Operating Officer of the Indiana Bureau of Motor Vehicles in November 2014. He is responsible for the oversight of both customer facing and central office operations including all branches in Indiana and the core functional areas including Titles, Registrations, Credentials, and Driver Records. Kevin began his career with the Bureau of Motor Vehicles in December 2008 as the Director of Supply Chain Management and has held various operational positions, each with increased oversight and responsibility, prior to being named COO.

Before joining the team, Kevin worked as an Operations and Inventory Manager for a music and video game distribution company. His various roles and experiences with the company took him from Indianapolis, Indiana to Detroit, Michigan, then Richmond, Virginia and Manchester, England.

Kevin is a native Hoosier, growing up on the west side of Indianapolis. He earned his Bachelor's degree from Indiana University's Kelley School of Business. Kevin is active in the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators (AAMVA) currently serving as the Chair of the organization's Vehicle Standing Committee. Kevin and his wife reside in Greenwood with their two children.

Stephen Leak—Executive Director of Credential Programs

Stephen Leak is the Executive Director of Credential Programs for the Indiana Bureau of Motor Vehicles. His responsibilities include assessing and implementing operational and security related systems and business practices for Indiana's credentialing program. Stephen's been a key leader in the State's "Real ID" program.

Stephen joined the Indiana Bureau of Motor Vehicles in 2005 following years of operational management with sporting goods retailer, Galyan's. He is active in the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators (AAMVA) as a member of the Card Design Standards Committee and is currently serving as the Chair of the organization's State to State (S2S) Governance Committee. Steve received his B.S. in Geography from Ball State University and M.A. in Geography/Remote Sensing from Indiana State University.