BMV announces myBMV.com Discount Day at Indiana State Fair

INDIANAPOLIS – Don Snemis, Commissioner of the Indiana Bureau of Motor Vehicles (BMV), today announced that myBMV.com Discount Day is Wednesday, August 13 at the Indiana State Fair.

By printing a discount coupon available at www.myBMV.com, visitors to the fair on myBMV.com Discount Day will receive admission for $5.

“Visiting the Indiana State Fair is a tradition for many in this state. We are excited to offer Hoosiers the opportunity to visit our website and print a coupon offering half-priced admission,” said Snemis. “While at the fair, I invite our customers to visit our booth in the Expo Hall and take advantage of the service we have available with our registration kiosk, or to check out our new motorcycle safety simulator.”

The myBMV.com booth offers customers a chance to renew vehicle registrations and walk away with the registration and sticker in hand by using the new registration kiosk. Additionally, laptops are available for all myBMV.com services. The BMV team members can also assist with agency-related questions.
