SECTION 15. 140 IAC 4-2-1 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

140 IAC 4-2-1 Waiver of age and experience requirements

Authority: IC 9-14-8-3; IC 9-24-3-3
Sec. 1. (a) The bureau may grant a hardship waiver of the age and or experience requirements for an initial operator's driver's license if it is determined either of the following conditions for a hardship are demonstrated by the applicant:

(1) The applicant would be the only licensed driver in the applicant's household, a household member owns or leases a properly registered motor vehicle, and a household member needs the individual to operate the motor vehicle to enable a household member to receive regularly required medical care.

(2) The applicant is the primary means of financial support for the family and no alternative means of transportation exists from another family member or from public transportation to get to and from the applicant's place of employment.

(b) The bureau may grant a hardship waiver of the practice driving requirements for an initial driver's license if it is determined any of the following conditions for a hardship are demonstrated by the applicant:

(1) The applicant has no licensed driver in Indiana that can supervise their practice driving.

(2) The applicant has held an Indiana learner's permit in the past and is currently holding a renewed learner's permit.

(3) The applicant meets either of the conditions set out in subsection (a).

(b) (c) An applicant's driving privileges must not be or have been suspended, revoked, invalidated, canceled, or the subject of any other similar action.

(e) (d) Each applicant must submit a written request on a form prescribed by the bureau for review and investigation.

(e) (e) If a waiver is granted, the applicant will receive a written waiver that may be presented to any branch at the time of application for an initial operator or chauffeur's license.

(e) (f) This waiver does not affect any requirement as to the written, vision, and driving tests.

(f) (g) The commissioner may alter any of the foregoing procedures when in his or her opinion an extreme emergency exists.

Sec. 6. (a) In addition to any other requirements, every student shall attend a minimum of thirty (30) hours of classroom theoretical training and six (6) hours of behind-the-wheel training to complete a driver education class successfully and to be eligible for a driving skills test waiver to be administered by a school participating in the driver skills test program under section 9 of this rule.

(b) If a student fails to attend the required minimum number of hours of instruction, or fails to complete a driver education class successfully, the school shall notify the bureau in writing, within ten (10) days, that the student failed to attend or successfully complete the class. The bureau shall expire the student's learner's permit upon receipt of said notification if the student is not at least sixteen (16) years of age.

(c) A student may not complete more than three (3) hours of classroom theoretical training in a calendar day, and may not complete more than one (1) hour two (2) hours of behind-the-wheel training in a calendar day.

(d) Individuals who have successfully completed either the classroom theoretical training or behind-the-wheel training phase of an approved course at a licensed school may transfer that phase of the course to another licensed school if:
    (1) the second school is willing to complete the unfinished phase of the course;
    (2) the first school transfers written documentation to the second school, showing which phase the student successfully completed; and
    (3) upon successful completion of both phases, the second school certifies that the individual has successfully completed both phases.

(e) Individuals who have not fully completed a phase of a course may transfer the completed portions of the course to another school only under the following conditions:
    (1) The first school is unable to complete the course within one hundred twenty (120) days of its

SECTION 26. 140 IAC 7-1.1-3 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

140 IAC 7-1.1-3 License, permit, and identification card documentation requirements
Authority: IC 9-14-8-3; IC 9-24
Affected: IC 5-26.5; IC 9-24

Sec. 3. (a) Each applicant for an initial, renewed, replacement, and amended driver's license and identification card must submit qualified documents or information, or both, to the bureau to prove the applicant's identity, lawful status in the United States (U.S.), residence address, and Social Security number (SSN) or that the applicant does not qualify for an SSN, and that the applicant is an Indiana resident. An applicant for an initial driver's license includes an applicant who held an Indiana driver's license or identification card, became a non-Indiana resident, and then reestablished Indiana residency. For some requirements, the bureau may allow applicants to use one
(1) or more qualified documents to satisfy more than one (1) of the requirements in this section. A U.S. citizen, as verified through bureau records or the applicant's documents, who applies for a renewed, replacement, or amended driver's license or identification card and who otherwise qualifies for a driver's license or identification card but does not comply with the documentation requirements in this section may receive a driver's license or identification card with a notation that the driver's license or identification card may not be accepted for federal identification purposes. The bureau will only allow an applicant's documents to serve as proof for the applicable requirement in this section if the documents meet the following requirements:

(1) Must be unaltered and valid original documents or certified facsimiles from the issuing agency.

(2) Must be:
(b) All applicants for an initial, renewed, replacement, or amended Indiana driver's license or identification card must comply with the requirements in this subsection one (1) time, except for non-U.S. citizens, as verified through bureau records or the applicant's documents, who must comply with the requirements in this subsection each time the applicant applies for an initial, renewed, replacement, or amended Indiana driver's license or identification card. This subsection does not apply to a U.S. citizen, as verified through bureau records or the applicant's documents, who applies for a renewed, replacement, or amended driver's license or identification card with a notation that the driver's license or identification card may not be accepted for federal identification purposes. An applicant must show proof of the following:

(1) Identity, which includes full legal name and date of birth, by presenting one (1) of the following documents:
   (A) An unexpired U.S. passport or U.S. passport card.
   (B) A certified birth certificate, and if applicable a certified amended birth certificate showing a change in name, date of birth, or gender, filed with a state office of vital statistics, or equivalent state entity, in the applicant's state of birth.
   (C) A Consular Report of Birth Abroad issued by the U.S. State Department (Form FS-240, Form DS-1350, or Form FS-545).
   (D) An unexpired U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) or U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) issued Permanent Resident Card (Form I-551) for those individuals whose authorized admittance and lawful status can be verified by the DHS.
   (E) An unexpired DHS issued Employment Authorization Document (Form I-688B or Form I-766) for those individuals whose authorized admittance and lawful status can be verified by the DHS.
   (F) An unexpired foreign passport with an unexpired U.S. visa accompanied by the approved I-94 form documenting either the applicant's most recent admittance into the U.S. or current status, or an unexpired foreign passport without a U.S. visa, for those individuals whose authorized admittance and lawful status can be verified by the DHS.
   (G) A DHS issued Certificate of Naturalization (Form N-550 or Form N-570) for those individuals whose authorized admittance and lawful status can be verified by the DHS.
   (H) A DHS issued Certificate of Citizenship (Form N-560 or Form N-561) for those individuals whose authorized admittance and lawful status can be verified by the DHS.
   (I) Non-U.S. citizens, as verified through bureau records or the applicant's documents, who have complied with the requirements in this subsection at least one (1) time and thereafter received an Indiana driver's license or identification card may use the Indiana driver's license or identification card for proof of identity.
   (J) Other documents that a U.S. federal agency issued to show identity if the bureau can verify that the document's information is accurate.
   (K) An applicant whose full legal name, date of birth, or gender was changed and is different than how the corresponding information appears in any of the documents delineated in clauses (A) through (J) must show proof of the change by presenting additional documents supporting the change, which include:
      (i) a marriage certificate;
      (ii) a divorce decree;
      (iii) a court order approving a name change or a date of birth change;
      (iv) a certified amended birth certificate for a gender change; or
      (v) a physician's signed and dated statement that "(insert applicant's name) successfully underwent all treatment necessary to permanently change (insert applicant's name) gender from (insert prior gender) to (insert new gender).".

(2) Lawful status in the U.S. by presenting:
   (A) one (1) of the documents delineated in subdivision (1)(A) through (1)(H);
   (B) a Notice of Action (Form I-797) document, if the bureau can verify that the DHS received it and has not denied action, and documents that a U.S. federal agency issued to show lawful status that pertain to the applicant's Notice of Action;
   (C) proof of application for asylum in the United States (Form I-589) for those individuals whose authorized admittance and lawful status can be verified by the DHS; or
   (D) other documents that a U.S. federal agency issued to show lawful status if the bureau can verify that the document's information is accurate and the person has lawful status in the U.S.

(3) Being an Indiana resident and of the applicant's residence address, which may not be a post office box, by submitting the bureau's form entitled "Indiana Residency Affidavit" by the following:
   (A) An applicant who is an incapacitated person. A person who:
      (i) is the applicant's legal guardian or caregiver;
      (ii) is at least eighteen (18) years of age; and
(iii) resides with the applicant; must sign the form at a license branch. The legal guardian or caregiver must show proof of identity by providing one (1) document from the list in subdivision (1), proof of residence address by providing two (2) documents from the list in subdivision (4), providing information detailing their relationship to the applicant, providing the guardianship documents if applicable, and presenting a valid Indiana driver's license or identification card.

(B) Homeless applicants without a residence address. The applicant must provide a letter from the government entity or not-for-profit organization on its letterhead containing the entity or organization's name, address, and telephone number, and the legal representative's name, signature, and signature date. The legal representative must state in the letter that the entity or organization provides services to the applicant and will accept delivery of mail for the applicant.

(C) Applicants who are unable to comply with the requirements in clause (A), (B), (D), or (E). A person with whom the applicant resides must:

(i) sign the form at a license branch at the time of the application; and
(ii) present:

(AA) a valid Indiana driver's license or identification card displaying their current residential address;

(BB) proof of identity by providing one (1) document from the list in subdivision (1); and

(CC) proof of residence address by providing two (2) documents from the list in subdivision (4).

(D) An applicant who resides in a motor vehicle, including, but not limited to, a mobile home or motor home. Another person who is an Indiana resident with a residence address must:

(i) sign the form and attest that the applicant may use the person's residence address for record purposes; and

(ii) show proof of residence address by providing two (2) documents from the list provided in subdivision (4).

The applicant must provide proof of paying Indiana income taxes for the current year or immediately prior year, and have current motor vehicle title and registration records with the bureau.

(E) Applicants with rural route mail delivery addresses. Each of these applicants must also provide a properly certified government issued document containing the applicant's name and description of the residence's location.

(4) Being an Indiana resident and of the applicant's residence address, which may not be a post office box, by submitting two (2) documents showing proof of being an Indiana resident and two (2) documents showing the applicant's residence address. Qualifying documents include the following:

(A) A U.S. Postal Service change of address confirmation (Form CNL107) containing the applicant's old and new addresses.

(B) A survey of the applicant's Indiana property produced by a licensed surveyor containing the applicant's name and residence address.

(C) An Indiana voter registration card.

(D) A utility company, credit card, doctor, or hospital bill:

(i) issued within sixty (60) days of the application date; and

(ii) containing the applicant's name and residence address.

(E) A residence mortgage or similar loan contract, or lease or rental contract, containing:

(i) the applicant's name and residence address; and

(ii) signatures from the parties needed to execute the agreement.

(F) A bank statement or bank transaction receipt, dated within sixty (60) days of the application date, containing the:

(i) bank's name and mailing address; and

(ii) applicant's name and residence address.

(G) A current motor vehicle loan payment book for a motor vehicle registered in the applicant's name, and containing the applicant's name and residence address.

SECTION 31. 140 IAC 7-6 IS ADDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Rule 6. Emergency Contacts

140 IAC 7-6-1 Emergency contacts

Authority: IC 9-26-10

Sec. 1. (a) The bureau shall create, maintain, and operate the Indiana emergency contact data base under IC 9-26-10.

(b) The bureau must provide a method for all Indiana credential applicants to enter or revise emergency contacts into the emergency contact data base when applying for a new, renewed, or amended credential.

(c) The emergency contact data base must consist of contact information for not more than two (2) emergency contacts per credential holder.
(d) Indiana credential holders that provide emergency contact information to the emergency contact data base must provide the emergency contact's:
   (1) legal name; and
   (2) phone number;
   for each emergency contact.

(e) The bureau may purge prior emergency contact information when a credential applicant:
   (1) provides new contact information; or
   (2) revises previously provided emergency contact information.

(f) All emergency contact information collected by the bureau for the purposes of entry, maintenance, revision, and storage of emergency contact information shall be provided only to coroners, law enforcement agencies, or law enforcement officers under the conditions described in IC 9-26-2-5 or IC 9-26-10.

(g) Coroners, law enforcement agencies, and law enforcement personnel may access the emergency contact data base in real time through electronic means.

(h) The bureau is not liable for the accuracy of the information submitted by a credential applicant to the emergency contact data base.

SECTION 32. 140 IAC 8-3-29 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

140 IAC 8-3-29 Dishonored or rejected payments procedures and service charges

Authority: IC 9-14-8-3
Affected: IC 9-14-14-1; IC 9-17; IC 9-18.1; IC 9-18.5; IC 9-24; IC 35-43-5

Sec. 29. The bureau of motor vehicles shall use the following procedures when a financial institution reports that it dishonors or rejects a person's check, credit card payment, E-check (electronic check), or other form of payment:
   (1) The bureau shall create a separate collection file for each dishonored or rejected payment received from a financial institution.
   (2) The bureau shall assess and collect the fees authorized in IC 35-43-5-5 and IC 6-6-5-12, IC 35-43-5.
   (3) The bureau shall compile and mail notices for each collection file that requests payment of the amount of the dishonored or rejected payment and any additional amounts assessed under subdivision (2). The notice shall also state that a driver's license or permit may be suspended and registration or title invalidated if full payment is not received within ten (10) business days from the collection notice's date.
   (4) The bureau shall provide a receipt for any payment or payments received.
   (5) The bureau may immediately suspend a driver's license or permit and invalidate a registration or title if the bureau does not receive full payment of the dishonored or rejected payment and the fees in subdivision (2) by the due date specified in subdivision (3).
   (6) The driver's license, permit, registration, or title shall be reinstated upon full payment of the dishonored or rejected payment, the fees in subdivision (2), and an additional fee of ten dollars ($10) for each suspended driver's license or permit and invalidated registration or title. The bureau shall provide a reinstatement receipt after removing the suspension or invalidation.
   (7) The bureau may waive the fees assessed in subdivisions (2) and (6) if the payment was dishonored or rejected due to a financial institution or bureau error, and the bureau receives written documentation of the error and the amount of the dishonored or stopped payment. The bureau shall place any documentation received in the applicable collection file. The bureau may remove a suspension or invalidation imposed under this section if the bureau receives a court order, or the bureau determines the dishonored or rejected payment was due to a financial institution or bureau error.
   (8) Each additional fee collected under subdivision (6) shall be deposited in the commission fund established by IC 9-14-14-1.
