

MEMORANDUM

To: Current and Prospective Students of Relay Graduate School of Education (Indianapolis)

From: Erica McGeady, Director of Strategy and Operations

Date: May 27, 2020

Subject: Relay Graduate School of Education (Indianapolis) COVID-19 Response

On Monday, March 16th, the Relay Graduate School of Education in Indianapolis pivoted to online instruction in response to the evolving COVID-19 situation in the local community and to ensure graduate student learning was not interrupted. At this time, online instruction will continue until at least August 31, 2020.

We will make sure any status changes are communicated to our graduate students, PK-12 School Partners, and communities to keep them all informed. For more COVID-19 updates and resources from the Relay Graduate School of Education, please look here.
