Dear Ms. Tips:

On behalf of Ross Education, LLC, I am writing to outline Ross Education's contingency plan to continue offering its coursework to students as we work through the challenges presented during the outbreak of the Coronavirus in the United States.

As necessary, students who are not able to attend classes at their resident campuses because they are ill or in isolation will be permitted to access coursework through Ross' Learning Management System, Canvas. Canvas allows students in all programs to access and complete class assignments, homework, Evolve Student Resources, and the Ross Edge Platform. Additionally, students will be able to access lectures via videoconference and their attendance will be logged. Canvas also allows Ross the capability of adding discussion boards.

Additional program-specific items that are also available in Canvas include:
