H. Kent Weldon Conference to take place April 12 at Marriott Indianapolis North

(INDIANAPOLIS) – The Indiana Commission for Higher Education will host its 2022 H. Kent Weldon Conference for Higher Education on Tuesday, April 12 at the Marriott Indianapolis North. The conference will be focused on the importance of career relevance in postsecondary education.

The H. Kent Weldon Conference is an annual convening of Indiana students, educators, and business and government leaders to share and discuss ideas that impact higher education and workforce development within the state. The conference will begin with a conversation between Indiana's new Commissioner for Higher Education Chris Lowery and President and CEO of Strada Education Network Dr. Stephen Moret. Breakout sessions and lunch will follow the keynote discussion.

This year's conference is sponsored by Strada Education Network.
