Water Superintendent Jeff Boyle: A preconstruction meeting regarding the retention tank will be held tomorrow at City Hall, 1:00 pm.

Street Superintendent Mike Burdette: Digging has begun for the splash pad at Kenney Park. Fill will be taken to Torres on Ravine Park Drive as previously requested and a hold harmless agreement with Torres is on file. Mayor Fisel commented that Wigent would also like fill on Union Street. City Attorney Steve Hagen will prepare a hold harmless agreement for Wigent to sign.

City Engineer Rick Pharis: Working on the paving projects for the GO bond funds. The detour issue at the viaduct was taken care of and will allow periods of opening for local traffic.

WWTP Superintendent Mark Schultz: Plans are to haul sludge for land application next week if no rain. It will take approximate three days.

Building Inspector Earle Franklin: A building permit was issued for the splash pad. Fees were waived for the city project.

Mayor Patty Fisel: Thanks to everyone for the great job you are doing.
