Call to order by Mayor Fisel – Public Hearing for Water Grant

Kristine Christlieb of Region III-A, the city's grant administrator, asked permission of the council to conduct the public hearing.

Motion to approve: Ken Schuman      Second: Julia Bell      Vote: All Ayes

The city will apply for a CDBG grant through OCRA for a water project. Monies are offered through HUD with a maximum amount of $550,000. The matching monies are to be provided through an SRF loan. Seven letters of need from the community are needed for the grant application noting how the project will impact the community.

Water Superintendent Jeff Boyle addressed the specifics of the project and the explained the need for each of the project pieces.

The grant application is due in May will be awarded in August. This type of grant is available only once per year.

As there were no further questions or comments, the public hearing was closed by Mayor Fisel at 7:35 pm.

Comments by Members of Council and Administration

Public Safety Director/Police Chief Bryan Shearer

- The annual report was scheduled for tonight but will wait until next meeting with hopes of a full council

Building Inspector Earle Franklin

- The library will be moving back to their building on Main Street this weekend
- There were eight new homes built in the city last year. Contractors are looking for lots to build homes.

Water Superintendent Jeff Boyle

- If residents have a water freeze up, call the water department right away. The longer you wait, the more difficult to unthaw.

WWTP Superintendent Don Skinner

- A meeting is set up with Dee Revnyak and Jim Frazell this week

City Engineer Rick Pharis

- Working on the 2015 Paving Program. Hope to have ready to bid in March.
- The new security window in the utility office should be installed next week

Mayor Fisel's Comments

- A thank you was received from SJRB for the donation
- A developer interested in the garment building property (Erika Scott from Herman and Kettle) will be here on March 26 to check out the property
