Comments by Members of Council and Administration

Street Superintendent Mike Burdette

- Personnel have been busy trimming trees and bushes in the streets and alleys for the school buses
- Getting quotes for sidewalks on Main Street. Mayor Fisel commented that money is tight and she appreciates the efforts. At this point we are waiting to determine if funding is available. It will be a council decision.

Public Safety Director/Police Chief Bryan Shearer

- Accepted an invitation to the White House meeting of law enforcement. Thankful to be going and to have a role in what is happening.
- The city is hosting PELA police training this week. There are 27 officers from other agencies training this week.
- Appreciate council's support in the training budget for the police department. Sixty percent of the officers will have completed PELA training.

Water Superintendent Jeff Boyle

- Major main break on Second Street at the bottom of the hill. Thanks to all city personnel for their assistance during the break. An excavation crew was called in to help. This main is not in the upcoming project but will need to be replaced. Will be looking into what is necessary to make it happen.

WWTP Superintendent Don Skinner

- Getting close to the plant project completion – possibly by the end of July.
- Compliments to staff for their cooperation during this long project.

Council Member Kelly Ware

- Spoke in support of police department. They do not hesitate to protect people. All Lives Matter.
- Thanks for the efforts on the sidewalks.
- Awesome job to Jeff and crew for taking care of the main break.
- Beware of PokéMon Go – it is in Ligonier.

Council Member Chris Fought

- Appreciate the professionalism of the police officers and keeping us safe.
- Thanks to the crew on the water main.
- Operation Foundation will be held July 27-30. Base will be at the Strong Tower Worship Center.

Council Member Julia Bell

- Agreed with other members' comments regarding the police department and water main break crew.

Council Member Becky Gray

- Agreed with other members' comments regarding the police department and water main break crew.
- Feels the sidewalk endeavors is a good idea.

Mayor Fisel's Comments

- Ditto on all of the comments regarding police and water main. Feel safe and appreciate the relationship with the police officers.
- Met with John Stafford on the trails project. Feel better about chances of submitting a project. Thanks to Jeff for attending the trails meetings.
- Hope to start on a horse shelter project soon. The Hagen Foundation donated funds toward the project. The original plans were shown to local Amish who felt it was more than necessary. The project will be scaled back and quoted.

Adjournment

Motion to adjourn: Chris Fought

Second: Becky Gray
