Comments by Members of Council and Administration

Street Superintendent Mike Burdette

- API is working on the curbs and ADA ramps in preparation of the paving project.
- We are still taking sidewalk applications.

Water Superintendent Jeff Boyle

- Working on problems with Well One. Will be an additional cost to get it up and running properly.
- Second filter is being worked on. Will also have additional costs for repair.

WWTP Superintendent Kenny Sprague

- A city pick-up truck was stolen from the plant this morning.

Park Director Alan Duncan

- Sign up for third through fifth grade basketball is in progress.
- AEP was contacted for additional lighting at the track and splash pad.

Building Administrator Earle Franklin

- Thanks to council for passing the zoning ordinance amendments. It should reduce variance requests.

City Engineer Rick Pharis

- Niblock should be starting the Third Street Extension, Union Street, and Waste Waster parking lot projects soon.

Council Member Kelly Ware

- Will be out for a couple of months.

Council Member Chris Fought

- Inquired as to what we found out about the street lights. Barb Hawn replied that of the 137 street lights in the city, only two are city owned. We are waiting for confirmation as to which two we will need to maintain.
