Comments by Members of Council and Administration

Street Superintendent Mike Burdette

- API hopes to start paving this week.
- Niblock is working on the curbs and will start milling Union Street this week.

Public Safety Director/Police Chief Bryan Shearer

- One of the squad cars was in an accident. No one was injured. The car will be totaled as there is frame damage.
- Public Safety Day & Touch the Truck went well until the bad weather hit.
- Thanks to the local FOP chapter who made it possible to through donations to equip our squad cars with an AED.
- Went live with Spillman, the records software last week.

WWTP Superintendent Kenny Sprague

- Problems with the Millennium lift station are being addressed.
- Niblock has started work on the parking lot project at the WWTP.

Clerk-Treasurer Barb Hawn

- City offices will be closed on November 1 for staff training, November 12 for Veterans Day, November 22-23 for Thanksgiving.

Mayor Fisel’s Comments

- Noble County Park Board is meeting on October 24 at 10:00 am and trails will be in the discussion. They would like a representative from Ligonier, but it falls at the same time as our Board of Works Meeting. We would like to have the Strawberry Valley Trails included. Jeff Boyle volunteered to attend and present information regarding our trail to their board.

Adjournment
