Comments by Members of Council and Administration

Street Superintendent Mike Burdette

- The Christmas tree in Pettit Park was moved on Friday.
- The clean up was huge this year. Have never seen this many attend. Had to turn about 25 people away.
- Busy helping Travis in the park and helping with the trails.

Public Safety Director/Police Chief Bryan Shearer

- Talked with Tyler Faylor, Project Manager for the fire station project. Hoping to start on the project mid-July.
- Jerod Bechtold completed the academy last Friday and graduated.

Water Superintendent Jeff Boyle

- South water was inspected and cleaned. Waiting on the report to come back.

Park Director Travis Brimhall

- Farmer's Market is doing well. Had eight vendors on Saturday. Should have twelve this week.
- Water and Street Dept. have been helping in Kenney Park with some trees that came down in the storm. Mulched the trail that is at the back of Kenney Park.
- Talking with Butch Lehman of the Topeka softball league. Trying to work out a plan after July 4 for the diamonds to be used for adult softball in the parks.

Council Member Doretta Wiegand

- Compliments to the city workers who worked the clean-up. It was miserably hot, and they did a great job.

City Attorney Steve Clouse

- Plan to attend the Municipal Lawyers conference which will be virtual this year.

Clerk-Treasurer Barb Hawn

- Copies of the capital plan and comprehensive financial plan were sent to department heads and council members for review. Will ask for approval of the plan at the next meeting so that additional appropriations and budgeting for 2021 can begin.
- Attended virtual Clerk-Treasurer's school classes all day last Thursday. Were some very good classes.
- Budget workshops with the DLGF will be held virtually this year.

Mayor Fisel's Comments

- Received a phone call today with compliments to Travis on the improvements they are seeing in the parks.
- Would like to recognize Nick and Chris for being here tonight.
- Thanks to everyone who helped with the clean-up. Hopefully, we can work out something with Dan Stuckman for next year's clean up.

Adjournment
