Baker Tilly Classification and Wage Study Report

Jada Kent from Baker Tilly virtually presented a report on the Classification and Wage Study they prepared for the city. This information was for the council, to describe the process and answer questions for them. They presented three scenarios that would provide for increases to positions that fell below the minimums in the classifications. Discussion led to the following.

Motion to adopt the Classification and Wage Plan proceeding with scenario two: Ken Schuman
Second: Chris Fought      Vote: All Ayes

New Business

Brad Graden – Noble County Community Foundation

Mr. Graden, Executive Director of the Community Foundation of Noble County was present to discuss interest in the current fire station for their offices after the move of the fire department to the new station. He expressed his appreciation to the committee for their assistance. They are looking to be closer to the population center which he feels will bring more community awareness to the foundation. They are interested in the front offices, kitchen and upstairs, but not the truck bays.

Council Member Chris Fought served on the committee and stated the foundations goals line up with the goals the committee had set.

Motion to proceed with negotiations to draft a lease for the building: Chris Fought
Second: Ken Schuman      Vote: All Ayes
