Comments by Members of Council and Administration

Street Superintendent Mike Burdette

- Crack sealing of streets was completed by Pavement Solutions
- Niblock started the paving program
- Hillside mower coming in to mow the Viaduct

Public Safety Director/Police Chief Bryan Shearer

- Star of the West has been in contact to see if there have been any further complaints regarding the noise. We have not had any further complaints. They are continuing to work on the issue. They hope to have the problem completely resolved this summer.
- Please keep the Goshen community in thoughts and prayers after their fatal shooting incident over the weekend.

Park Director Travis Brimhall

- Soccer ended last Saturday.
- Baseball meeting with coaches was last week and starts soon.
- We have a girls softball traveling team using the diamonds this year.
- Splash pad will open this weekend.

Clerk-Treasurer Barb Hawn

- Informed the council she has been in contact with Aaron Waggoner regarding the promotional video he created for us three years ago. There are various things in the city that have changed and wanted to get costs to update. The quote came in with a range of $1395 to update or $1895 for a complete re-edit. Discussion led to the following.

Motion to approve up to $1895 to revise the promotional video: Chris Fought
Second: Ken Schuman      Vote: All Ayes
