Motion to approve: Julia Bell      Second: Chris Fought      Vote: All Ayes

Citizens Comments

Name & Address: Margarita and Mike White – Representing the Ligonier Marshmallow Festival

Biggest event the city has and brings in 3000-5000 people on Labor Day Weekend. Events the same – great family event.

Asked for the use of the old fire station building for the weekend for the pancake breakfast, bake off and other events.

Would also like to use south bay for supplies throughout the year for storage. Would like to get into one location. Fire station wants to use part of the south bay as well for the festival.

There was discussion regarding the use of the building this year and in the future. There are preliminary plans to turn the bays into a community room with a grant application being filed next year. This would not allow for use of the south bay as it would be part of the renovation. Discussion led to the following:

Motion to approve use of the building for the festival this year and to allow the south bay for storage for one year: Ken Schuman      Second: Julia Bell      Vote: All Ayes

New Business

Perry Township Fire Contract Discussion

Perry Township Trustee Barb Donley was present to discuss the Perry Township Fire Contract. The current contract runs through the end of this year. Previously we have renewed the contract for three years at a time. The previous renewal was 1.5% over the prior year. She would like to see a contract to run concurrent with her upcoming four-year term, through 2026.

*Motion to approve 1.5% increase per year through 2026: Chris Fought
Second: Matt Kreager      Vote: All Ayes*

The agreement will be prepared and available for signatures at the next meeting.

Ruth Stultz Preschool Move Out

Formal notice was received from Ruth Stultz Preschool regarding the plans to move from the City Building at Woodlawn Park to the Methodist Church. They plan to vacate by September 6, 2022.

Section 125 Plan

American Fidelity provides updates to the city's Section 125 Plan at no cost. The renewal for 2022-2023 was received and available for approval.

Motion to approve the revised city Section 125 Plan and authorize Clerk-Treasurer Barb Hawn to sign on behalf of the city: Julia Bell      Second: Ken Schuman      Vote: All Ayes
