

Cass County LEPC

Meeting Minutes from Feb. 6, 2013

Members present: Randy Pryor, Alvin Beckman, Bob Kasting, Herb Bowman, Larry Lucas, Tim Cree, Bob Curry, Sandra Curry,

Meeting was called to order by Chairman Beckman at 6:00pm

Motion to approve meeting minutes from November 2012 meeting was made, seconded and approved majority vote

OLD BUSINESS

Ethics Training: Alvin stated that he needs each members to acknowledge a proxy for themselves, then he will submit a roster and all those who need to go thru the Ethics training will be notified by e-mail of how to log on to a link to take the on-line version of the training.

Election of Officers: A motion was made by Herb Detrick, seconded by Larry Lucas, that we accept the nominations from the prior meeting for officers.

Alvin Beckman, Chairman; Herb Detrick, Vice-chairman; Randy Pryor, Secretary

Motion passed by majority vote

DUNS Number: Alvin checked with the State in reference to using the county's DUNS Number for LEPC, but was told that the LEPC would have to get their own DUNS Number

Proxies: Proxies were discussed and some members added their proxy to the roster. Alvin will need the names and the e-mail addresses for all proxies.

NEW BUSINESS

LEPC Goals for 2013: open discussion was held in reference to what goals we need and want to accomplish for the year 2013. Some of those were as follows:

- 1) Increase public awareness of the hazardous materials travelling thru and being used in the county
- 2) Educate the public on what LEPC does
- 3) Get more involved in the community. Sandy Curry talked about 211, and the it was discussed that we need to be available at fairs and festivals
- 4) Plan ahead with local industry, pre-planning for potential emergencies
- 5) Review By-laws, Hazardous Materials response plan, and exercises

Herb Detrick brought up trying to locate public information movies, flyers, and other handouts that we could pass out to the public.

EXERCISE: Larry Lucas stated that the Anderson's would be willing to set-up an exercise for LEPC.

Alvin discussed some recent incidents that have taken place in Cass County.

Herb Detrick made a motion, seconded by Bob Kasting, to adjourn, and it passed unanimously

Respectfully Submitted,

Randy Pryor, Secretary
