

Misdemeanor Prosecuting Attorney

The Cass County Prosecuting Attorney's Office seeks a qualified individual to fill an open, full-time Deputy Prosecuting Attorney position. Responsibilities include working a caseload that involves misdemeanors, infractions and a variety of other duties including child support, diversion and deferrals, extraditions and major felony work. Applicant must have a license to practice law in the State of Indiana. Minimum starting salary is $85,000.00, with greater starting salary for exceptionally qualified candidates. Position include generous county benefits. The successful applicant will join a team of six dedicated deputy prosecutors and helpful staff, and is invited to join a growing community that retains small-town feel & benefits while being close to several major metro areas.
