

Floyd County Commissioners 2012 FCO-XII

Floyd County Ordinance rescinding Floyd County Ordinance FCO-I 1965 pertaining to operation of Community Park

Whereas, the New Albany City Council voted to dissolve its participation in a joint New Albany-Floyd County Parks Department;

Whereas, the Floyd County Commissioners realize the need for the establishment of Floyd County Parks Department to ensure the vitality and function of a park system;

Whereas, the collaborative spirit of Floyd County Ordinance FCO-I 1965 establishing the parameters of operation and maintenance for Community Park has been damaged;

Whereas, the Board of County Commissioners have created an interim plan for development and operation of a County Parks Department and have submitted such proposal to the Floyd County Council;

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED that Floyd County Board of Commissioners rescind the Floyd County Ordinance FCO I 1965 pertaining to the development, maintenance and operation of Community Park and that the Floyd County Commissioners will administer, maintain, and operate the Community Park under its control or until at some time that a Floyd County Parks Department is created.

SO Ordained this 20th day of November, 2012.

Board of County Commissioners

Stephen A. Bush, President

Charles Freiberger, Commissioner

Mark Seabrook, Commissioner

ATTEST:

Darin Coddington, County Auditor
