FLOYD COUNTY RESOLUTION 1998-
A RESOLUTION ENDORSING THE CONSIDERATION OF A LOCATION FOR A NEW ANIMAL SHELTER

MURKES, the City of New Albany, the County of Floyd and the Floyd County Animal Rescue League, Inc., incorporated, make congratulations on the formation of the new Animal Shelter and recommendation of an Animal Shelter, and MURKES, being of the opinion of said agreement, the Floyd County Animal Rescue League, Incorporated, has considered the best site commonly known as 313-317 West Market Street, New Albany, Indiana, to be the proper location for animal shelter purposes, with said area owned by the New Albany-Floyd County Animal Authority; and MURKES, the Board of Commissioners of the County of Floyd in presently consider by this resolution of said body the convention of said area as a possible site for the construction of the new Animal Shelter.

NOW THEREFORE:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Commissioners of the County of Floyd goes before the commissioners of the County of Floyd state's last day in the year of New Albany, Indiana, and commonly known as 313-317 West Market Street as a possible site for the construction of a new Animal Shelter.

SO RESOLVED this 27th day of August, 1998.
