NEW BUSINESS:

Prosecutor's Office's PAC Request

Prosecutor Mark McCann discussed his Personnel Administration Committee (PAC) request which had been previously denied. He reiterated that his request does not require additional funding and that he is simply making some structural changes within his office. He explained to the Council what his original PAC request was for and why he will be presenting some transfers at the upcoming December 7th Council meeting.

Public Defender's Office's Quarterly Report

Chief Public Defender Andrew Vandenbosch provided an update to the Council on the Public Defender's Office. Mr. Vandenbosch provided the Council with their 3rd Quarter Report for 2023. Mr. Vandenbosch stated that he would like to keep the Council and Commissioners better informed on what is happening in the Public Defender's Office.

2024 Council Meeting Schedule

Council President Roberts discussed with the Council Members changes he thinks should be made to the 2024 Council Meeting Schedule. He asked for the Council Members to think about the changes he suggested for the schedule and to push back the vote on the schedule until the December 7th Council Meeting.

*There being no further business to come before the Council at this time, the meeting was adjourned at 4:48 p.m. on a motion made by Councilman Faulkner.
Councilwoman Lake seconded the motion, and the motion carried.*
