Subcommittee Reports

911 Dispatch: County Council has approved 911 Dispatch and the Sheriff is the last signature required.

KVB Presentation by Peggy Hobson and Jeb Conrad

- KVB signed a memo of understanding with the Greater Kokomo Economic Alliance (GKEDA)
- The KVB will be co-locating with GKEDA at 325 North Main
- This partnership will allow both organizations to share resources, promote efficiencies, and should help with product development.
- A task force from the KVB and GKEDA will take a “Deep Dive” on the strategic and operational opportunities
- 24% of GKEDA’s money is from tax dollars

Public Comment:

Commissioner Thompson: In response to comments made that the CCC was scapegoats for politicians; he did not think that the CCC was scapegoats.

Clee Oliver: Strongly disagrees with the CCC meeting in executive session.

Commission Thompson: In response to Mr. Oliver’s comment: The CCC is not a governing body and is not under the same rules.

Martha Lake: In regards to a “County Manager” position: Is concerned about the taxpayers losing their voice to elected officials.

Closing:

Dave Schulte made a motion to adjourn and Dick Davis seconded.
