The individual attorney responsible for the prosecution or defense of the case shall make certain that his or her name appears on the CCS of the cause. Attorneys preparing documents for filing shall have as a part of the documents the first twelve digits of the uniform case numbering system as adopted by the Supreme Court of the State of Indiana.

This requirement shall not apply to papers personally verified by a party. If such pleadings or orders are inadvertently accepted for filing, upon discovery of the error or omission, such pleading shall be stricken from the record unless substantial prejudice would be caused to a party by that striking.

LR85-TR3.1-3 Withdrawal of Appearance

(A) Counsel desiring to withdraw their appearance in any cause other than criminal shall file a formal request to do so. Included as a part of said request shall be a brief statement of the reasons for such request, a statement of efforts made to contact the client affected thereby, and/or evidence of written notice to the client of the request to withdraw. No request to withdraw shall be granted where the effect of the withdrawal would be to deprive the Court of jurisdiction over the party.

(B) A withdrawal of appearance accompanied by the appearance of other counsel shall constitute compliance with the requirements of paragraph (A) of this Rule.

(C) Counsel wishing to withdraw their appearance for a criminal defendant shall file a formal request to do so. In the event that a case is venued to the Court as a result of a motion for change of venue filed in another county, a party who requests a hearing or ruling on any matter filed while the case was in the other county shall first bring such matter to the attention of the judge by written request for hearing or ruling. The time period for calculation of the time limits imposed under Indiana Trial Rule 53.1 shall begin to run on the date of filing of such a request for hearing or ruling.

(B) The time of hearing motions shall be fixed by the Court. (C) Parties shall be prepared at the time of the pretrial conference to discuss the status of any pending motions, to discuss whether further motions shall be filed with the Court and their subject matter, to enter into any stipulations regarding facts or exhibits, to indicate to the Court any unusual aspects of the case or any unusual instructions anticipated to be requested, and to discuss the possibility of settlement of the issues.

(D) In all civil cases to be tried to a jury, Counsel shall prepare and file with the Court a proposed final pretrial order to be submitted to the Court at the time of the final pretrial conference. Counsel shall further file at that time a proposed preliminary instruction on the issues to be decided at trial.

(D) In all criminal cases, Counsel for the State and Defense shall confirm with the Court's Bailiff, not less than seven (7) days prior to the trial, whether the trial will proceed. Failure to confirm may result in loss of the trial date.

LR85-TR33-9 Interrogatories

(A) No duplicated forms containing interrogatories shall be served upon a party unless all interrogatories or special forms are consecutively numbered and applicable to the particular cause in which they are sought.

(B) The number of interrogatories which may be served upon an opposing party shall be limited so as to require the opposing party to make no more than one hundred (100) individual answers. Each interrogatory shall be numbered individually and consecutively. To the extent a party submits interrogatories exceeding the number allowed and without obtaining prior Court approval therefore, the responding party shall only be obligated to answer the first one hundred (100) individual answers. Waiver of this limitation will be granted by the Court in cases in which the limitation would work a manifest injustice or would be impractical due to the complexity of the case.
