- C. Use of Schedule. The schedule is NOT a minimum fee schedule, but a suggested maximum fee schedule. Every attorney and Personal Representative has an obligation to request a fee which is fair and reasonable for the work performed, taking into account Indiana Rules of Professional Conduct.  - b. the nature and extent of the responsibilities assumed by the attorney and the results obtained, and shall include the considerations of the identity of the Personal Representative and the character of the probate and non-probate transferred assets;
 - c. the sufficiency of assets properly available to pay for legal services, and shall consider whether the attorney's duties are expanded by the existence of non-probate assets because of their inclusion for tax purposes, both federal and state; and,
 - d. the timeliness with which the necessary services are performed consistent with statutory requirements, the Court's rules of procedure and the Rules of Professional Conduct applicable thereto.
 3. In considering all of these criteria, all attorneys are expected to discuss with their client(s) their fee, and that of the Personal Representative, at the time they are retained in Probate matters.
 4. In the event of a dispute of fees requested, the Court will consider records of time spent and / or work performed by the Attorney and Fiduciary.
