Judges and Allocating Service Days for 2019

Supreme Court Case No.
18S-MS-613

Order Appointing Senior Judges and Allocating Senior Judge Service Days

Administrative Rule 5(B)(1) provides that the Supreme Court may appoint all senior judges certified by the Judicial Nominating Commission to serve in the Court of Appeals, the Tax Court, a circuit, a superior, or a probate court.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that all senior judges certified by the Judicial Nominating Commission for service in 2019 are appointed to serve in the Court of Appeals, the Tax Court, or any circuit, superior, or probate court during 2019.

Administrative Rule 5(B)(2) provides that each year the Supreme Court shall fix the number of senior judge days each court may use, based on the recommendation of the Chief Administrative Officer of the Indiana Office of Judicial Administration, using the weighted caseload (WCL) measurement system, the annual statistical reports, and other relevant criteria. In addition to weighted caseload numbers, the allocation of senior judge service days will now also consider committee and judicial conference assignments, prior usage, medical needs, and other factors. The rule also provides that each court may use at least ten senior judge days.

Senior Judges are an important resource available to trial court judges to manage their caseloads. The Court wishes to encourage the use of senior judges, not just to cover vacations and illness, but to assist judges when they are present in court by taking on tasks that enable the court to provide litigants timely justice. To this end, the Court is increasing the minimum number of days that will be allotted to courts from ten (10) to fifteen (15) days and reviewing other factors in allotting senior judge days.

With this increase in Senior Judge days and other adjustments, the Court hopes to encourage the use of Senior Judges in lieu of the utilization of attorneys as pro tem judges.

In addition, all this Court's previous Orders allocating senior judge service days have placed the burden on judges to ensure that their use of senior judge days did not exceed their annual allotment. Requests for additional senior judge service days have historically been automatically approved. Some courts have exceeded their senior judge allotment without first seeking additional days and this practice should be minimized. As a result, requests for additional days will need to be formally requested prior to the court exceeding its annual allotment. Senior judges are required to provide trial courts a statement of service to assist courts in tracking senior judge usage. Additionally, the senior judge webpage provides a spreadsheet noting senior judge days that have been reported for each court. We encourage judges to make use of these resources and, not later than July of each year, review the status of their senior judge usage. Written requests for additional days shall be made to the Chief Administrative Officer, providing detailed information on new or changed circumstances necessitating additional senior judge service. Requests for additional senior judge service days made after the court's allotment has already been exceeded will be frowned upon.

IT IS, THEREFORE, FURTHER ORDERED That each court may use the number of senior judge days specified in the attached spreadsheet without any additional request to this Court. It shall be incumbent upon the presiding judge of each court to ensure that his/her court complies with the senior judge day limits set out above. In those counties with unified courts and authority vested in the chief judge to allocate senior judge service days, the total number of senior judge service days allocated to the unified courts may be assigned by the chief judge to the various courts without reference to the limitations imposed upon individual courts by this Order. All such reassignments of senior judge service days shall be reported to the Chief Administrative Officer.

IT IS, FURTHER ORDERED that the Court of Appeals and the Tax Court may utilize such senior judge service days as is reasonably necessary to conduct the business of the Courts.
