If a valid claim is found to exist, it should be honored and paid after the payment of any fees or costs in the criminal matter, including but not limited to court costs, fines, attorney fee liens, restitution, retention charges, public defender fund reimbursements, community correction fees, probation user fees, treatment court fees and any other current or outstanding statutory or court-ordered fees, if any of those are ordered by the court to be paid from the bond, but before payment to the person who posted the bond. Priority of claims should be given as chronologically entered in the Chronological Case Summary.

LR82-CR00-2.04

Discovery

In each criminal case in the Vanderburgh Circuit and Superior Courts, the Vanderburgh County Prosecutor's Office and the law enforcement agencies which are involved in the case shall produce to the defense attorney the entire case file, including a list of all evidence held, within thirty (30) days of the defense attorney's first appearance in court. This is a continuing rule, and all additions to the case file shall be produced immediately upon their creation.

Except by order of court, a defense attorney receiving such a case file shall not reveal any victim's or witnesses' confidential identifying information, including Social Security number, driver's license number, and date of birth, to anyone other than an associate or employee of the attorney. In the event the defense attorney wishes to show the case file to any other person, including the defendant, the attorney shall first redact such information from the file.

LR82-CR00-C2.05

Court Sessions

Regular court sessions are held every weekday at 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. All holding dates, progress dates, and sentencings for persons not in custody shall be scheduled for 9 a.m. court. Video Court shall take place during 1 p.m. court. All in custody video probable cause hearings, initial hearings and persons arrested on warrants, and sentencings for defendants in custody shall take place during 1 p.m. court. Out of custody probable cause hearings, initial hearings and persons arrested on warrants who have posted bond may be set at either 9 a.m. or 1 p.m. Special court sessions for petitions to revoke, motions for modification from community corrections programs, and related matters are held on Wednesday and Thursday at 11 a.m. Court sessions are held in Room 208 on the second floor of the Courts Building. If Room 208 is being used for a trial or another matter, then court sessions are held in Room 202.

LR82-CR00-C2.06

Probable Cause Hearings

If a defendant is arrested without an arrest warrant having previously been issued, a probable cause hearing will be held. The hearing will be held at the court session immediately following the arrest and booking of the defendant in the Vanderburgh County Jail. At this hearing, the Court will review the affidavit of probable cause filed by the State to decide if there is probable cause for the offense(s) alleged by the State. If the Court finds that there is not probable cause, the defendant will be discharged. If the Court finds that there is probable cause, the Court will advise the defendant of the charges and some preliminary rights and set bond. The Court will also order the defendant to appear in three business days for an initial hearing at which time the defendant should appear with an attorney if he/she intends to hire counsel and the State should file any formal charges.

LR82-CR00-C2.07

Initial Hearings

An initial hearing will be held on the third business day after the probable cause hearing unless the defendant was arrested as a result of an arrest warrant. If an arrest warrant was issued and then the defendant was arrested, an initial hearing will be held at the next regular court session immediately following the arrest and booking of the defendant in the Vanderburgh County Jail. At the initial hearing, the Court will advise the defendant of the charges, penalties, and constitutional rights; review bond; set an omnibus date and a holding date; and appoint counsel or set an appearance date for the defendant to appear with private counsel.

LR82-CR00-C2.08

Readiness Conferences

Readiness Conferences are an opportunity for the prosecutor, the defense attorney, and the Court to discuss the case and any plea offers. Only the attorneys need to appear for these conferences. (This is not an appearance date for the defendant). The date of the initial hearing controls when the readiness conferences are set. Readiness conferences for cases with initial hearings on the 1st through the 15th of the month will be set on the first consecutive Wednesday and Thursday of the next month. Readiness conferences for cases with initial hearings on the 16th through the 31st of the month will be set on the third consecutive Wednesday and Thursday of the next month. Readiness conferences for non-drug and non-sex crime cases will be held on the first and third Wednesdays at 1:30 p.m. Readiness conferences for drug and sex crime cases will be held on the following Thursdays at 1:30 p.m.

Attorneys will be advised of the readiness conference date at the time of the initial hearing. The conferences will be held in the jury or grand jury room of Circuit Court. An attorney should contact Court staff and the Prosecutor's Office if he/she is unable to appear at his/her scheduled readiness conference.

Holding Dates

Holding dates are dates for the defendant and his/her attorney to appear so that the defendant can accept or reject any offer by the State of Indiana and/or set the matter for trial. The date of the initial hearing controls when the holding date is set. Holding dates will be set six weeks after the initial hearing on the same weekday as the initial hearing. If the scheduled holding date is a holiday, then the Court will set the holding date on the business day after the holiday if that day is in the same week. Otherwise, the holding date will be set on the business day prior to the holiday.

Omnibus Dates

The omnibus date is not an appearance date. However, it does control several legal deadlines for pleading certain matters and filing certain documents. The omnibus date is set 75 days from the initial hearing.

LR82-CR00-C2.11

Miscellaneous Hearings

If an attorney needs a hearing for a miscellaneous matter, including but not limited to, hearings for motions to suppress, motions to sever or join offenses or defendants, and motions for bond reduction, the attorney should contact opposing counsel and then court staff to schedule such a hearing or by agreement of the parties add the case on the court's calendar during 9 a.m. regular matters.

LR82-CR00-C2.12

Adding Cases to the Court Docket

If an attorney needs to add a criminal matter to the court's calendar, the attorney should advise opposing counsel and then contact court staff. If the defendant is in custody the case must be added on at least one full day prior to the appearance date. The attorney should advise the court staff if the defendant is in custody.

LR82-CR00-C2.13

Pre-Trial Conferences

Pre-trial conferences will be held approximately two weeks prior to trial. Pre-trials should be scheduled during the regular court session when the parties agree to a trial date. At the pre-trial conference, the court and parties will discuss the issues in the case, motions that need to be taken up in advance, possible plea agreements and any other relevant matters. (This is not an appearance date for the defendant.)

LR82-CR00-C2.14

Trial Dates

When a party requests a trial date, the Court will attempt to set the date within approximately 30 days if the defendant is in custody and 60 days if the defendant is not in custody. All trials, including court and Jury trials start at 8 a.m. unless the Court advises otherwise. Questionnaires for prospective jurors will be available approximately two days prior to the trial. If additional time is needed to review the questionnaires, the bailiff can be contacted at 812-435-5196. Preliminary instructions will be provided on the first day of trial and final instructions will be provided during the trial. If additional time is needed to review the instructions, the staff attorney can be contacted at 812-435-5312. Peremptory challenges and challenges for cause are to be in writing on a form provided by court staff on the day of trial.

LR82-CR10-C2.15

Plea and Sentencing Hearings

If a defendant and the State have entered into a plea agreement, the Court will not take a guilty plea and order a pre-sentence investigation until the agreement has been reduced to writing and executed by the parties. When a defendant pleads guilty with or without a plea agreement with the State, the Court will establish a factual basis for each offense and advise the defendant of the penalties and constitutional rights. For these cases and for cases in which the defendant has been found guilty after a jury or court trial, a judgment and sentencing date will be set. The judgment and sentencing date will usually be scheduled approximately 20 days later if the defendant is in custody and approximately 40 days later if the defendant is not in custody. After a judgment and sentencing date has been set, the defendant should immediately report to the Probation Department in Room 127 of the Administration Building so that an interview can be scheduled for the defendant's pre-sentence report. If the defendant is in custody, a member of the probation staff will interview the defendant in the jail. Subject to the Court's approval, and if both parties agree, pre-sentence investigation reports may be waived in certain Class D felonies.

LR82-CR00-C2.16

Modification Requests - Community Corrections or Probationary Sentences

Any request for modification of a community corrections or probationary sentence should be in writing and sent to the court. Hearings on such requests are set on Wednesdays and Thursdays at 11 a.m. This shall include requests for modification of driver's license suspensions.

LR82-CR00-C2.17

Petitions to Revoke - Community Corrections or Probationary Sentences

If a petition to revoke the sentence of a person on a community corrections program or on probation is filed, either a bench warrant will be issued or the defendant will be advised of an appearance date by summons. These hearings are set on Wednesdays and Thursdays at 11 a.m.

LR82-CR00-C2.18

Shock Probation Hearings - Department of Corrections Sentences

Any request for modification of a sentence being served at the Indiana Department of Corrections should be in writing and sent to the court. Once a modification request is received, court staff will request a progress report from the facility where the defendant is an inmate. Once the progress report has been received by the court, a shock probation hearing will be scheduled. (If the sentence involved a plea agreement with the State, the State must agree to have a shock probation hearing before a hearing is set.) These hearings are usually held on the last Thursday of each month. If the Court is unavailable on such date, a different date will be selected. If a defendant is represented by an attorney, the attorney will be sent a notice of the hearing date. (Defendants are not transported back to Vanderburgh County for these hearings.)

Superior Court Small Claims

All Small Claims matters are assigned to Division Six wherein the following Rules will apply:

(A) Service. On first appearance the Court will not allow service of process to be sent to the defendant's employer. On Proceeding Supplemental the Court will consider proper service for the purpose of obtaining an order of garnishment when service is good upon the employer, even though service may not be good upon the defendant. When the employer refuses service, it can be considered sufficient service for the purpose of an order of garnishment only. Service may be obtained by a process server if an affidavit of service is filed.

(B) Attorney Fees. Attorney fees shall not be awarded unless such fees are authorized by law or contract. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that a reasonable attorney fee for a small claims matter shall be determined based upon the principal amount of the judgment as follows:

$1,000.01 to $2,000.00	$450.00
$2,000.01 to $3,500.00	$800.00
$3,500.01 to $6,000.00	$1,200.00
$6,000.01 or more	$1,500.00

A party seeking attorney fees is not limited to the presumptive attorney fees set out above and may request attorney fees in excess of the presumptive amount by submitting an attorney fee affidavit which itemizes the services rendered, the actual time spent performing those services, and the hourly rate requested. A party who seeks a presumptive attorney fee award shall not be required to submit an attorney fee affidavit in support of the request unless the request is challenged by another party. If an attorney renders services in multiple cases at or near the same time, the attorney may not submit an affidavit where the same actual time spent is duplicated in multiple cases but must reasonably apportion the total time spent among the cases.

If a party challenges an award of attorney fees, the Court shall set a contested hearing on the issue. In determining the amount of attorney fees to be awarded, the Court shall consider the time reasonably and actually expended in the case at the time the request is heard or decided, the amount of the fee in relation to the principal amount of damages sought, the factors enumerated in Rule 1.5 of the Indiana Rules of Professional Conduct, and any other circumstance bearing on the reasonableness of the fee.

(C) Claim for Insufficient Funds. Upon filing of a claim for insufficient funds on bad checks where multiple statutory remedies are available, the claimant should elect which remedy is being requested and list the same on the statement of claim.

(D) Proceedings Supplemental - Judgment Entry. Parties must wait seven (7) days after obtaining a judgment before filing a Proceedings Supplemental, and the Judgment Entry must be filed with the Court prior to the Proceedings Supplemental being filed.

(E) Proceedings Supplemental - Hearings. Proceedings Supplemental hearings shall not be continued for progress after an order of garnishment or a personal order of garnishment has been obtained. A subsequent Motion for Proceedings Supplemental shall only be filed if the motion sets forth circumstances that have changed since the last hearing in regard to the defendant's financial status.

(F) All Cases to Have Future Date. No cases will be continued without date.

(G) Claims for Rent and Damages. All claims for rent and damages on leased property must be documented by a back rent and damages form and corroborating evidence. The back rent and damages form is available in the Small Claims Office, Room 220. The corroborating evidence shall include a copy of the written lease agreement, a ledger or other documentation showing all monthly charges and payments, and documentation to support the specific damages claimed. At its discretion, the Court may require additional corroborating evidence. If the Court determines that excessive late fees have been charged, the Court shall limit the possible recovery for late fees to ten percent (10%) of the monthly rent amount for each month the rent is not timely paid.

(H) Non-Parties. Non-parties may be subpoenaed for initial hearings only upon leave of court.

This process shall continue until jurisdiction vests in a special judge so selected. If no judicial officer in District 26 shall qualify, the case shall be referred to the Indiana Supreme Court for appointment of a special judge.

3. As provided by TR 79(H) or CR 13, the order of appointment made pursuant to this District 26 rule by the court in which the case is pending shall constitute acceptance. An oath or additional evidence of acceptance of jurisdiction is not required.
4. Any judicial officer assigned by the Administrator as special judge who is disqualified pursuant to the Code of Judicial Conduct, ineligible for service under TR 79(J), or excused from service by the Indiana Supreme Court, shall remain on the list in the same numeric place from which assigned. LR-82-FL-00-4.05 Summary Hearings

- A. Purpose. By agreement of the parties all issues and evidence relevant to a domestic relations case may be presented in summary fashion. This method allows parties' access to the Court relatively quickly and with less expense. While summary hearings are not appropriate for all cases, it is believed these hearings will reduce the time most cases have to wait to be heard.
- B. Scheduling of Summary Hearings. Summary hearings shall be heard in increments of one half (1/2) hour every Friday morning before a Magistrate beginning at 8:30 A.M. to 11:30 A.M., and from 1:00 P.M. and to 2:30 P.M. A summary hearing may be scheduled by the parties in the same manner as other hearings are set.
- C. Agreement of Parties. All parties of record must agree to set the hearing in a summary fashion and must agree to the method of conducting the same. Testimony and evidence shall be presented in a summary fashion or by such other method agreeable to the parties. At a summary hearing, each party shall be allocated equal presentation time. Time limits at summary hearings will be strictly enforced.
- D. Exhibits. Any exhibits to be presented at a summary hearing shall have been exchanged prior to that hearing and stipulated to in terms of admissibility. Child support guideline worksheets shall be completed and signed by the submitting party.
- E. Statement of Issues. The Court may exercise discretion at a summary hearing in approving the method of conducting the hearing and approving the means of presenting evidence and testimony. At a summary hearing, the parties will submit to the Court, preferably in writing, or in opening statements, the issues before the Court.

LR-82-TR-65-4.06 Orders without Notice

However, if the parties reach a settlement “on the Courthouse steps,” then the parties shall recite the entire agreement for the record, and enter the appropriate order upon preparation and filing by counsel within thirty (30) days of reciting said agreement. The Order documenting the agreement recited in open Court shall be filed in the chambers of one (1) of the two (2) Family Court Judges assigned to Family Court during the particular month that the agreement was recited in open Court. LR-82-TR-58-4.08
Preparation of Orders

- A. Exchange. It shall be the duty of the parties’ attorneys to prepare decrees and other orders as directed by the Court. The attorney so directed shall first submit them to all other attorneys of record, to enable them to challenge any provision thereof, before submission to the Court for entry.
- B. Additions. If a party is withholding approval as to form or is making additions not addressed by the Court, the matter may be set for conference before the judicial officer having jurisdiction concerning the same. The party setting the conference shall provide to the Court and to the opposing party a proposed order with the notice of the scheduled conference. The Court may enter sanctions against a party who has unreasonably withheld approval or attempted to make additions not addressed by the Court.
- C. Signatures. The signature line for each counsel or pro se litigant on orders arising from contested matters shall indicate “Approved As to Form Only”. Such signature indicates that the order correctly reflects the Court’s ruling. It does not necessarily signify that the signing party or attorney agrees with that ruling.

LR-82-FL-00-4.09
Standing Order for Parental Education Workshop

The Judges of the Vanderburgh Superior Courts find that it is in the best interests of society, of children and of the Courts to encourage cooperation and mediation between separating and divorcing parents. We further find that a mandatory parental education workshop will:

Aid the children of divorcing parents;
Aid the parents in post separation parenting;
Encourage agreements between litigating parents in the best interest of their children; and Conserve the court time by reducing repetitive petitions over child custody, parenting time and support.

Therefore the Judge orders both parties to any dissolution of marriage or separation action filed in the Vanderburgh Superior Courts to attend a parental education program if the parties have a minor child or children less than the age of 17 years, 6 months at the date of filing.

The parties are responsible for paying the cost of attending the program. All or a portion of the attendance fee may be waived upon the showing of indigence.

The Lampion Center is an approved provider of a parental education program for the Vanderburgh Superior Courts. The Lampion Center's program brochures shall be provided by the Clerk of the Court to petitioners and served with the summons upon each respondent by Sheriff (See Appendix B). Other program providers are subject to approval by the Court.

The Court may waive attendance upon a showing that a party has completed a similar program, has been in individual counseling, or for other good cause in an individual case.

The workshop provider will furnish each participant and the Court with a certificate of completion of the program.

If a party fails to complete the program within seventy (70) days of service on the respondent, the Court will take appropriate action, which action may include punishment for contempt of Court.

LR-82-FL-00-4.11 Hearings

LR-82-TR-53.2-4.12

Interlocutory or post decree matters may be continued by the petitioning party, without argument or stipulation, only on the condition that no attorney has appeared of record for the nonmoving party.

LR-82-FL-00-4.13

LOCAL PROBATE RULE LR82-PR-13
PRIVATE ADOPTIONS

13.1 Prior to filing the Petition for Adoption, if the Petitioner wants temporary custody of the child, they must complete a pre-placement adoption investigation with a licensed agency that complies with the requirements of the IN Department of Child Services, Child Welfare Manual, Resource Family Preparation Assessment. If the Petitioners have met the requirements of the Court on filing the necessary documentation for a Private Adoption the court may issue an order authorizing the Petitioners to have temporary custody of the child. If the Petitioners have not met the requirements of the Court, then they may not take physical custody of the child prior to an Order of this Court authorizing such placement. Such unauthorized custody may be grounds for (a) removal of the child from the Petitioners' custody and (b) denial of the Petition for Adoption.

13.2 A final hearing will not be scheduled without the following documents being filed with the Court.

- A. Consent of the birth mother and consent of the birth father if known. If there is a named birth father and his consent is unobtainable, then notice of the 30 Day Consent Hearing must be provided to him. All Consents must be dated, notarized or duly verified.
- B. Results of the putative father search.
- C. Written acknowledgment by birth mother of availability of up to three (3) hours of counseling at adoptive parents' expense within six (6) months following the birth of the child. This may be contained within the Consent of the birth mother.

D. Financial disclosure of paid expenses and expected expenses by Petitioners to the birth mother. This may be contained within the Consent of the birth mother.

13.3 All birth mothers under the age of eighteen (18) years or otherwise incapable of consenting to an adoption must be represented by independent legal counsel. The Court also highly recommends that all birth mothers over the age of eighteen (18) years be represented by independent counsel. Counsel for the birth mother is responsible for (a) advising birth mother as to her rights in consenting to the adoption, (b) assisting birth mother in executing a voluntary waiver of parental rights, and (c) representing birth mother at the 30 Day Consent Hearing.

All named birth fathers under the age of eighteen (18) years or otherwise incapable of consenting to an adoption must be represented by independent legal counsel.

The payment of birth mother and birth father's attorney fees shall be the responsibility of the adoptive parents, regardless of whether the adoption is approved.

13.4 A consent hearing will be set within thirty (30) days of the filing of the Petition for Adoption. If the birth mother is represented by legal counsel, but is under the age of eighteen (18) years or is otherwise incapable of consenting to an adoption, then her attendance at the 30 Day Consent Hearing is required. If the birth mother is represented by legal counsel, is over the age of eighteen (18) years, and is otherwise capable of consenting to the adoption, then her attendance at the 30 Day Consent Hearing is not required. If birth mother is not represented by legal counsel, then she must be given notice of the 30 Day Consent Hearing. The Petitioners shall not be allowed to attend any 30 Day Consent hearing in which the birth mother is under the age of eighteen (18) years or otherwise incapable of consenting to an adoption; however, counsel for the Petitioners may attend. If a named birth father is under the age of eighteen (18) years, then his attendance at the 30 Day Consent Hearing is required. The Petitioners shall not be allowed to attend any 30 Day Consent Hearing in which the named birth father is under the age of eighteen (18) years or otherwise incapable of consenting to an adoption; however, counsel for the Petitioners may attend.

13.5 No adoption can be finalized until at least one (1) post placement report is filed with the Court. The post placement report must be based on a visit by a licensed agency or the DCS no sooner than thirty (30) days after the Court has granted temporary custody to the Petitioners. The Court presumes that there will be a one (1) year supervisory period on most adoptions, but this requirement can be waived for good cause. When a waiver is sought the pleading should state the reasons why the petitioner believes the one year is not necessary. In the event that the waiver request is denied, the petitioner can request a hearing on the matter.

LOCAL PROBATE RULE LR82-PR-14
PROBATE CLERKS

INSTRUCTIONS TO GUARDIAN

Read carefully; date and sign one copy and return it to this Court within ten days. Keep a copy for your reference.

You have been appointed the Guardian of an individual, Protected Person, who, because of some incapacity, is unable to care for his/her own financial and/or personal affairs. It is important that you understand the significance of this appointment and your responsibility as Guardian.

In order to qualify and have your Letters issued to you, you may be required to post a bond in the amount set by the Court and to take an oath to faithfully discharge your duties as Guardian. The Bond assures the Court that you will properly protect the assets of the Protected Person.

Listed below are some of your duties, but not necessarily all of them. You are directed to ask the Attorney for the Guardianship to fully explain to you each of the items below and to tell you about the other duties you have in your particular circumstances. Though the Attorney will file all papers with the court, the ultimate responsibility to see that all reports, etc., are accurately and timely prepared and filed, rests with you.

As GUARDIAN of the financial affairs of the Protected Person, you are required to:

1. File with the court, within ninety (90) days after your appointment, a verified Inventory and appraisal of all the property belonging to the Protected Person;
2. File with the court a verified account of all the income and expenditures of the Guardianship every two (2) years after your appointment;
3. If assets were placed in a restricted account you are to file an accounting every two (2) years, together with a statement from the financial institution showing the current balance of the funds and that the same remain in an account that is restricted;
4. Pay bond premiums as they become due;
5. File Federal and State Tax Returns for Protected Person and pay taxes;
6. File a final accounting, detailing all property and income received and all expenses paid with receipts to verify each expenditure with the Court upon the termination of the guardianship or upon the death of the Protected Person;
7. Keep all of the assets of the Protected Person separate from your own;
8. Open an account where the canceled checks are returned to you, in your name as Guardian, in which all of the cash assets of the Protected Person are deposited. This account must be used for all payments or disbursements on behalf of the Guardianship and the Protected Person;
9. Obtain approval from the Court to use Guardianship assets.

It is your duty to protect and preserve the Protected Person's property, to the account for the use of the property faithfully and to perform all the duties required by law of a Guardian.

You may NOT make expenditures or investments from the Guardianship funds without court authorization.

Guardianship funds must never be commingled with personal funds. A separate account for all Guardianship assets must be kept in your name as Guardian. Accurate accounts must be kept and accurate reports made. Unauthorized use of Guardianship funds can result in your being personally liable for the misuse of those sums.

As GUARDIAN of the personal affairs of the Protected Person, you are required to:

- A. Make certain that the physical and mental needs of the Protected Person (food, clothing, shelter, medical attention, education, etc.) are properly and adequately provided for;
- B. File with the Court a status report as to the physical condition and general welfare of the Protected Person every two (2) years after your appointment if said Protected Person is over the age of eighteen (18).
- C. File with the Court a status report as to the physical condition and general welfare of the Protected Person yearly after your appointment of said Protected Person is a minor.

It is important to understand that you have the same duties and responsibilities concerning the Protected Person whether or not the Protected Person is your relative.

If at any time you have a change of address, please notify the Court immediately so that we may make that change to the Court file.

If any questions arise during the Guardianship, you should consult with your Attorney immediately.

I acknowledge I have read and understand the above instructions and agree to follow them carefully, and further that I have kept a copy for my continued use and review.
