ON THE COVER

History of the Jasper County Courthouse

History provided by the Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana

Fire destroyed numerous early Indiana courthouses but few occurred under such mysterious circumstances as the one at the 1857 Jasper County Courthouse. It seems an unscrupulous lawyer named Cicero Tatman stole money from his partner, General Robert Milroy, while Milroy was serving in the Civil War. Following the January 18, 1865 courthouse fire, the General wrote in his diary, "Finding that [Tatman] was collecting money of clients and keeping-stealing and swindling I ordered him to turn over my papers, books, etc. He reluctantly and slowly did so but burned the courthouse and my papers to avoid detection of his villainy."¹

Although the loss of county records was irreparable, contractors repaired the building and added new fireproof vaults. With additional updates and repairs, the courthouse continued to serve the county until 1895. At that time, County Commissioners hired Fort Wayne architect Alfred Grindle to assess the condition of the courthouse. Grindle found the brick building so deteriorated that he declared "the only way to repair this building is to rebuild it."²

The Commissioners hired Grindle and his partner Charles Weatherhogg to design a fireproof courthouse. Evidently Grindle and Weatherhogg thought it fitting that a town named Rensselaer have a French-inspired courthouse. The current building is a mélange of French chateau and Gothic cathedral influences. The rough-cut Bedford limestone, turrets, curving arches and gabled dormers give the building a castle-like massing, while the carved Medieval figurines and delicate rooftop finials recall a religious structure. The courthouse was listed in the National Register of Historic Places in 1983.

Like the majority of Indiana courthouses, the Jasper County Courthouse resides within a Shelbyville Square plan with streets intersecting at each corner of the square.

In celebration of the courthouse's 100th birthday in 1996, decorative painters restored original interior stencils, gilding, and a 16-color paint scheme. Craftsman Steve Diedam restored stencils that his grandfather Herman, a German immigrant, probably painted originally.³

INTRODUCTION

Volume III of the Indiana Judicial Service Report reflects detailed revenue and expenditure information on every trial court in the state. Indiana Code 33-24-6-3(a)(2) directs the Division of State Court Administration (the Division) to collect and compile statistical data on the receipt and expenditure of public monies by and for the operation of the courts. Each court, whether single or unified, must file with the Division its Report on Court Revenue (Revenue Report) and its Report on Budget & Expenditures (Budget & Expenditure Report).

In Volume I, Judicial Year in Review, Fiscal Reports of Indiana Trial Courts section presents a general financial overview of the reported expenditures of Indiana's courts and revenues generated through their operation. This volume contains a more comprehensive review of the revenues and expenditures generated by the state courts. While the trial courts' requested and approved local budgets are reported to us, they are not published in the annual report. The financial information is gathered on an annual basis at the close of each calendar year.

A description of the Indiana judicial system, data on Indiana's appellate-level courts, statewide totals, and comparison tables and trends, is available in Volume I – Judicial Year in Review of this report.

Expenditures

Indiana's judicial system is funded by a combination of county tax revenues, state appropriations and user fees. The Indiana Supreme Court, Court of Appeals of Indiana and Indiana Tax Court are funded through appropriations from the State General Fund. The Indiana State Auditor's Report is online at in.gov/auditor and contains information about the expenditures by these courts and other state-level expenditures on judicial functions. Relevant portions of that report are reflected in Volume I, Judicial Year in Review, Fiscal Reports of Indiana Trial Courts section.

Indiana's trial courts are funded primarily through county funds; however, state funds pay for judges' and magistrates' salaries, senior judges and some special judge expenses. Counties may choose to pay an additional amount towards the judges' and magistrates' salaries. Counties may also receive state funds for reimbursement of approved pauper defense services and for GAL/CASA services for abused and neglected children. Additionally, the Division awarded 14 Court Reform Grants in 2013. Thirteen of the grants totaling $410,000 went directly to the counties. Courts also generate user fees that are partially expended on court services.

Criminal indigent defense in Indiana is paid through a mixture of county funds and partial state reimbursements. The majority of counties (52 of 92) follow standards established by the Indiana Public Defender Commission for caseload limits and creation of independent public defender boards. They do so in order to qualify to 40 percent state reimbursement for qualified non-capital (death penalty) cases. The counties provide indigent defense services for the remainder of criminal cases through a variety of structures. The state's appropriation for reimbursement to the local indigent defense expenses was $22.25 million for Fiscal Year 2012-2013.

Municipalities fund city and town courts. In many instances the local government does not maintain a distinct city or town court budget and all expenses are paid directly from the local general fund. This practice makes it difficult to provide accurate expenditure information for the city and town courts.

Marion County (Indianapolis) townships directly fund the nine Marion County Small Claims Courts through budget appropriations.

The Budget & Expenditure Report filed by each court categorizes the trial court expenditures as follows: salaried and unsalaried personnel expenses which now includes fringe benefits and travel – 10000 series, supplies – 20000 series, professional services – 30000 series, and capital outlays – 40000 series. For 2013, these categories were combined/changed to reflect a better coordination in how courts supply budget and expenditure information to the Department of Local Government Finance Authority. Therefore, the information identifying expenditures from the courts is slightly different than in previous publications. If any of the expenditures are facilitated by mandate, the report reflects information related to the mandate as well.

Line items "Grants," "Distributions to Other Local Governments" and "Social Service Payments" from the State Auditor's report are now combined into one total for the chart below. See Volume I, Judicial Year in Review, State Fund Expenditures on the Judicial System chart for a breakdown of the total state expenditures.

Costs of Indigent Defense Services in Indiana

Established by Indiana Code 33-40-6-1, the Public Defense Fund reimburses counties for 50 percent of certified expenditures for indigent defense in capital cases. Counties that meet the standards set by the Indiana Public Defender Commission (Commission), receive a 40 percent reimbursement of indigent defense costs for eligible non-capital cases. Fifty-two of Indiana's 92 counties participated in the fund in 2013. Some counties' public defender offices participating in the reimbursement program have budgets separate from the county courts' budgets. In other participating counties, expenditures for indigent defense services are paid, in whole or part, from the courts' budgets and these court expenditures are reported to the Division in an annual Budget and Expenditure Report. In addition, counties that participate in the Public Defender system file reports with the Indiana Public Defender Commission about their expenditures.

To provide a more global picture of the actual costs of indigent defense services than either the reports to the Commission or to the Division standing alone provide, the following chart sets out the information collected from Budget and Expenditure Reports submitted to the Division and from reports submitted to the Commission. Where public defender offices submitted reports both to the Commission and to the Division, an attempt was made to capture all expenditures while minimizing the possibility of duplication of expenditures. In some cases, the reports were combined to come up with a total for this chart while, in other cases, the higher amount reported is listed where duplication in reporting of some expenditures was likely. The following chart should be viewed as summary approximation and not as a precise accounting of expenditures for indigent defense services. The Indigent Defense Services chart total represents a portion of, and is not in addition to, the $438,689,616 total expenditures on the courts listed in the 2013 expenditures chart.

Revenue References

Trial courts generate revenue primarily from filing fees, court costs, fines and fees assessed to litigants. Revenues generated through the operation of the trial courts are collected, accounted for and disbursed by the Clerk of the Circuit Court, an independently elected office for each Judicial Circuit. The Clerk of the Circuit Court also functions as the Clerk of the county and, as such, performs many other functions unrelated to court operations, including issuing marriage licenses, coordinating the election board, and conducting county, state and national elections.

Revenues generated through the city, town, and Marion County Small Claims Courts are collected by the local clerk and disbursed to state, county, or local general funds or to a list of specific funds established by the Indiana General Assembly for specific programs and services. The only direct payment fee is the personal service of process fee charged to small claims litigants in the Marion County Small Claims Courts. This fee is paid to the constable and his or her deputies.

In 2013, there were many fees which were potentially applicable and collectable from litigants in Indiana's courts depending on the case type, the court and the nature of the offense.

The chart below reflects a summary of the total revenues collected by the State court system and sent to each level of government. The heading "County Courts" refers to Circuit, Superior, and Probate Courts. The revenues sent to each level of government are deposited in general funds that are not designated for a specific purpose, court related services funds that provide funding for specific court programs like probation or special funds designated for purposes outside of the judicial system.

Explanatory Notes

Although the salaries of judges of circuit, superior, and probate courts are paid by the state, the counties are permitted, but are not required, to supplement those salaries up to $5,000.¹ The detailed sections of this report that set out the number or compensation of judges refer to judges whose salaries were supplemented at the county level.

Some courts reported their revenue and expenditures separately and others in a county combined their figures into a consolidated report. Where a consolidated report was filed, the figures are reported under the name of one court only.

COURT REPORTER INFORMATION

Court reporters are responsible for the preparation of the record, including a transcript of all proceedings, upon which an appeal is made. The cost of the transcript preparation is borne by the party appealing the decision, ruling or verdict of the trial court. In an effort to bring uniformity and to bring Indiana's practices in line with U.S. Department of Labor's regulations, the Indiana Supreme Court adopted Indiana Administrative Rule 15. This rule requires all courts of record within a county to adopt, for Indiana Supreme Court approval, a local court rule governing court reporter services. The courts must select one of three Court Reporter Models. Models One and Two contain the following requirements:

1. Designate that a court reporter is paid an annual salary for time spent working under the control, direction and supervision of the court during any regular works hours, gap hours or overtime hours.
2. Designate that if a court reporter engages in private practice through recording a deposition and/or preparing a deposition transcript, it is done outside of regular work hours.
3. Designate that if a court reporter utilizes court equipment, work space and supplies in preparing a deposition recording and/or transcript, the court and court reporter must enter into a written agreement as to the market rate for using the equipment, work space and supplies, how records are to be kept for their use, and the payment method for their use.

4. A maximum per page fee that a court reporter may charge for the preparation of a private transcript.
5. A requirement that each court reporter report all transcript fees received by the court reporter on an annual basis to the Division of State Court Administration.

Model Three allows the court(s) to procure all court reporter services by contract and submit the contract for approval by the Indiana Supreme Court. Since the end of 1998, each county had a uniform method by which a court reporter charged for transcript preparation. Any changes to a local rule promulgated under Administrative Rule 15 require the approval of the Indiana Supreme Court. A listing of local court reporter fees by county is published to the Division website.

This financial volume includes information concerning the funds collected by court reporters for preparation of transcripts for hearings and appeals. There are four types of transcripts:

1. Hearing: A transcript of any official court proceeding.
2. Deposition: A transcript of a deposition taken in either a civil or criminal proceeding.
3. Indigent Transcript: A transcript provided to an individual who has been declared indigent by a court in a criminal proceeding.
4. Private Transcript: A transcript provided in either a civil or criminal proceeding that is paid for by a non-governmental entity, i.e., a private individual, organization, corporation, etc.
