

Indiana Department of Child Services Older Youth Initiatives (OYI)

The Older Youth Initiatives (OYI) program encompasses CHAFEE Older Youth Services (OYS), Collaborative Care, and CHAFEE Voluntary Older Services. OYS were formerly known as the Chafee Independent Living Services. OYS and Collaborative Care are sets of services and supports used in order to assist older youth successfully achieve their successful adulthood case plan goals. OYS and Collaborative Care are primarily focused on helping those youth who are expected to turn 18 in foster care; however, OYS can be implemented concurrently with other goals like reunification and adoption. Voluntary Services are a set of services for youth who have “aged out” of the foster care system. Indiana’s Older Youth Initiatives services are geared to assisting current and former foster youth in the areas of housing, employment, education, physical and mental health and financial education.

The primary purposes of the OYI programs are:

- Identify youth who are expected to remain in foster care until their 18th birthday or after and assist them make the transition to self-sufficiency.
- Help identified youth receive necessary education, training, and services to overcome potential barriers to employment.
- Help youth prepare for and enter post-secondary education and/or training institutions.
- Provide personal and emotional support for youth aging out of foster care.
- Assist youth in locating and identifying community resources that will be available to the youth after DCS involvement has ended.
- Encourage positive personal growth in older youth through “teachable moments.”

Older Youth Initiatives is designed as a continuum of care beginning at age 16 with an extension of foster care until the youth turns 20 years of age and voluntary services as a safety net for older youth age 20–23.
