PROCEDURE

If a child support order includes any of the prohibited orders, only the information pertaining to the current child support obligation and arrears are to be entered into the statewide child support system.³ Other financial orders that do not belong in the statewide child support system shall be entered into and tracked through the Clerk of Courts' case management system.

¹ 42 U.S.C. § 659(i)(2) defines child support as an order for the support and maintenance of a child or the spouse of the child with whom the child is living. Since these orders do not fall within the definition of child support or within the Title IV-D program's duties, these orders do not belong in the statewide child support system. IC 33-32-4-2.5
